Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes

If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same when demand, the amount (including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessable penalty, regardless of any code that may accrue in addition thereto) shall be a lien against the United States upon all property and rights to property, wherever located, belonging to such person. (Section 6321(a)(1).)

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed for a deficiency against the taxpayer arising out of such deficiency is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (b) has been filed by the Secretary.

(b) Place For Filing Notice; Form.—

(1) Place For Filing.—The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed:

(A) Under State Laws:

(i) Real Property.—In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the country, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated, and

(ii) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office, within the State (or the country, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; except that State authority conforming to existing Federal law establishing a national title system does not constitute a second office for filing as designated by the laws of such State, or

(B) Title Clerk Or District Court.—in the office of the Clerk of the United States District Court for the judicial District in which the property subject to lien is situated, whenever the State has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A); or

(C) When Recorder Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia.—in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

Notice of Tax Lien

VS.

United States

No. _____

Secretary received written information (in the manner prescribed in regulations issued by the Secretary) concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence. A notice of such fact is also filed in accordance with subsection (f) in the State in which such residence is located.

(c) Required Refiling Period.—

In the case of any notice of lien, the period required for resubmission:

(A) the one-year period ending 30 days after the expiration of 10 years after the date of the assessment of the tax, and

(B) the one-year period ending with the expiration of 10 years after the date of the preceding required resubmission period for such notice of lien.

Sec. 6325. Release Of Lien Or Discharge Of Property

(d) Release Of Lien.—Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any internal revenue tax not later than 30 days after the date on which:

(1) Liability Satisfied Or Unenforceable.—The Secretary finds that the liability for the amount assessed, together with all interest to recover the tax, has been fully satisfied and become legally unenforceable; or

(2) Bond Accepted.—There is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount assessed, together with all interest to respect thereof, within the time prescribed by law (including any extension of such time), and that is in accordance with such requirements relating to terms, conditions, and form as the bond and sureties thereon, as may be specified by the regulations.

Sec. 6403. Confidentiality and Disclosure of Returns and Return Information

(e) Disclosure of Certain Returns and Return Information For Tax Administration Purposes.—

(2) Disclosure of amount of outstanding lien.—If notice of lien has been filed pursuant to section 6323(f), the amount of the outstanding obligation secured by such lien may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory written evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such lien or intends to obtain a right in such property.
