4. In case of default therein, Mortgagee or the holder of the contract may, but need not, make any payment or perform any act hereinbefore required of Mortgagors in any form and manner deemed expedient, and may, but need not, make full or partial payments of principal or interest on prior encumbrances if any, and purchase, discharge, compromise or settle any tax lien or other prior lien or title or claim thereof, or redeem from any tax sale or forfeiture, after losing said premises or contest any tax or assessment. All moneys paid for any of these purposes herein authorized and all expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith including attorneys' fees and any other moneys advanced by Mortgagee or the holders of the contract to protect the mortgaged premises and the lien hereof, shall be so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and shall become immediately due and payable without notice. Inaction of Mortgagee or holders of the contract shall never be considered as a waiver of any right accruing to them on account of any default hereunder on the part of the Mortgagors.
5. The Mortgagor or the holder of the contract hereby secured making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes and assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate procured from the appropriate public office without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax assessment, sale, forfeiture, tax lien or title or claim thereof.

All expenditures and expenses of the nature in this paragraph mentioned shall become so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and immediately due and payable when paid or incurred by Mortgagee or holder of the contract in connection with (a) any proceeding, including probate and bankruptcy proceedings, to which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant, by reason of this Mortgage or any indebtedness thereby secured, or (b) preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after accrual of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced or for preparations for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof whether or not actually commenced.
8. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: First, on account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof; second, all other items which under the terms hereof constitute secured indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the contract; third, all other indebtedness, if any, remaining unpaid on the contract; fourth, any surplus to Mortgagors, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns as their rights may appear.
9. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this mortgage the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale without notice, without regard to the solventy or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Mortgagor hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of (1) the indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this Mortgage or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.
10. No action for the enforcement of the lien or any provision hereof shall be subject to any defense which would not be good and available to the party interposing same in an action at law upon the contract hereby secured.

12. If Mortgagors shall sell, assign or transfer any right, title or interest in said premises, or any portion thereof, without the written consent of the holder of the contract secured hereby, holder shall have the right, at holder's option, to declare all unpaid indebtedness secured by this mortgage to be immediately due and payable, anything in said contract or this mortgage to the contrary notwithstanding.
