When the indebtedness secured hereby shall become due whether by acceleration or otherwise, Mortgagee shall have the right to foreclose the lien of this Mortgage. In any suit to foreclose the lien of this Mortgage, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the judgment of foreclosure all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Mortgagee for attorneys' and paralegals' fees, appraisers' fees, outlays for documentary and expert evidence,ographer's charges, publication costs and costs of procuring all abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, title insurance policies, Torrens certificates, tax and lien searches, and similar data and assurances with respect to title as Mortgagee may deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute the foreclosure suit or to evidence to bidders at any foreclosure sale. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: first, on account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including all the items that are above mentioned; second, all other items which under the terms of this Mortgage constitute indebtedness secured by this Mortgage, additional to that evidenced by the note, with interest thereon as herein provided; third, all principal and interest remaining unpaid on the note and the liabilities (first to interest and then to principal); fourth, any surplus to Mortgagor or Mortgagor's heirs, legal representatives, successors or assigns, as their rights may appear. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a complaint to foreclose this Mortgage, the court in which such suit is filed may grant the Mortgagee the right to possess the Premises pursuant to Chapter 110, Sections 15-1701 through 15-1703 of the Illinois Revised Statutes and/or appoint a receiver of the Premises. Such grant and/or appointment may be made either before or after entry of judgment of foreclosure, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagor or the time of application for the grant and/or without regard to the then value of the Premises or whether the premises shall be then occupied as a homestead or not. Mortgagee may be appointed as the receiver. The Mortgagee in possession and/or receiver shall have all power conferred by law including but not limited to the power to collect the rents, issues and profits of the Premises during the pendency of the foreclosure suit and, in case of an entry of judgment of foreclosure, during the full statutory period of redemption, if any, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagor, except for the intervention of Mortgagee in possession or receiver, would be entitled to collect the rents, issues and profits. The Mortgagee in possession or receiver shall also have all other powers which may be necessary or usual for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the Premises. The court in which the foreclosure suit is filed may from time to time authorize the Mortgagee in possession or receiver to apply the net income in its hands in payment in whole or in part of the indebtedness secured hereby, or secured by any judgment foreclosing this Mortgage, or any tax, special assessment or other lien or encumbrance which may be or will become superior to the lien hereof or of the judgment, and the deficiency judgment against Mortgagor or any guarantor of the note in case of a forfeiture sale and deficiency. No action for the enforcement of the lien or of any provision of this Mortgage shall be subject to any defense which would not be good and available to the party interposing the same in an action at law upon the note.
