The report of sale may be prepared by the Plaintiff to be reviewed and executed by the person conducting the sale and the person conducting the sale shall submit or cause to be submitted the report for review by the court at the time of Confirmation of Sale. The report shall include a copy of all receipts of sale.

(8) CONFIRMATION OF SALE: Upon motion and notice in accordance with court rules applicable to motions generally, the court shall conduct a hearing to confirm the sale pursuant to Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 110, Section 15-1508.

(a) Unless the court finds that either a notice required in accordance with Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 110, Section 15-1507(c) was not given, that the terms of the sale were unconscionable, that the sale was conducted fraudulently, or that justice was otherwise not done, the court shall then enter an order confirming the sale.

The Court shall enter an In Rem deficiency Judgment if it finds there to be no personal jurisdiction over those parties liable on the note or if there is no personal liability based on other findings by the court.

(9) SPECIAL RIGHT TO REDEEM: If the subject real estate has been found to be residential as defined by statute and the purchaser at the judicial sale was a mortgagee who was a party to the foreclosure or its nominee, and the sale price is less than the amount specified in Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 110, Section 15-1603(d), then an owner of redemption as set forth in Section 15-1603(a) shall have the special right to redeem, for a period ending 30 days after the date the sale is confirmed, by paying the mortgagee the sale price plus all additional costs and expenses incurred by the mortgagee set forth in the report of sale and confirmation by the court.

(10) TERMINATION OF SUBORDINATE INTERESTS: In the event of such sale and the failure of the person entitled thereto to redeem prior to such sale pursuant to statutory provisions, the defendants made parties to the foreclosure in accordance with statutory provisions, and all nonrecord claimants given notice of the foreclosure in accordance with statutory provisions, and all persons claiming by, through or under them, and for each and any and all of them, shall be forever barred and foreclosed of any right, title, interest, claim, lien or right to redeem in and to the mortgaged real estate.

(a) This Judgment and all orders entered pursuant to said judgment are valid as stated above. The inadvertent failure to name a subordinate record claimant will not invalidate this judgment. Should such a record party not be party to this action, the Plaintiff may take title and file a subsequent action to determine the redemptive rights of such a party. Plaintiff may amend the complaint for foreclosure to name such a party if it is made aware of the claim prior to the judicial sale without affecting the validity of the judgment as to the other parties defendant. Should such a claimant not exercise its redemptive rights within the stated time, they shall be forever barred and foreclosed of any right, title, interest, claim, lien or right to redeem or otherwise enforce its claim against the subject property.

(11) ISSUANCE OF DEED: After the expiration of the mortgagor's reinstatement and redemption rights, payment of the purchase price by the successful bidder and confirmation of the sale, the person conducting the sale shall execute and issue a deed to the owner and holder of the Certificate of sale pursuant to Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 110, Section 15-1509. Delivery of the deed shall be sufficient to pass title and will bar all claims of parties to the foreclosure including unknown owners and Nonrecord Claimants.

(12) TORRENS REAL ESTATE: If the subject property is registered with the Registrar of Titles for Cook County, it is also ordered that the Registrar cancel the Certificate of Title and issue a new Certificate without the surrender of the Owner's Duplicate Certificate of Title or Affidavit of Lost Certificate.

(13) JURISDICTION: The Court retains jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter of this cause for the purpose of enforcing this Judgment or vacating said Judgment if a reinstatement is made as set forth in paragraph (9) of this Judgment.

(14) APPEALABILITY: This is a final and appealable order and there is no just cause for delaying the enforcement of this judgment or appeal therefrom.
