Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes

For purposes of this section, the term "tax" means any tax imposed by law, except a tax on property, which is levied against the person or persons liable for such tax, together with any interest and penalties thereon, and the amount of such tax, plus any amount which may be allowed as a deduction or credit in respect of such tax, and any amount which may be allowed as a deduction or credit in respect of such tax under section 64 or 6781.

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless otherwise provided by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 upon the property of any person liable for tax, interest, and penalties made and shall continue in force until the amount of tax, interest, and penalties, together with any amount allowed as a deduction or credit in respect of such tax, and any amount allowed as a deduction or credit in respect of such tax under section 64 or 6781,

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The tax imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment creditor until such time that it appears the right of subordination has been lost by the Secre-

(b) Place For Filing Notice; Form.—

(1) Place For Filing.—The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed:

(A) Under State Laws.

(i) Real Property.—In the case of real property, in the office within the State or the county, or other governmental subdivision, as designated by the laws of such State in which the property subject to the lien is situated, and

(ii) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, with the office within the State in the county, or other governmental subdivision, as designated by the laws of such State in which the property subject to the lien is situated, except that State law merely conforming to existing Federal law establishing a uniform filing system does not constitute a second office for filing as so stated by the laws of such State;

(B) With Clerk Of Court.—In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district to which the property subject to lien is situated, unless the State has not by law so granted one or more of the requirements of subparagraph (A); or

(C) With Register Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia.—In the office of the register of deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

Secretary, received written information on the manner prescribed in regulations issued by the Secretary concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence, if a notice of such change is filed in accordance with subsection (b) in the State in which such residence is located.

(b) Required Refiling Period.—In the case of any notice given, the term "required refiling period" means the period of 1 year, the longest period ending 10 days after the expiration of 10 years after the date of the assessment of the tax, or

(c) Refiling.—The notice and copies of the notice referred to in subsection (a) may be furnished to the Secretary. Such notice and copies may be furnished to any other person by the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative.

Note: See section 6323(b) for protection for certain interests even though notice of lien imposed by section 6321 is filed with respect to:

- 1. Real estate.
- 2. Personal property purchased or held.
- 3. Personal property purchased or created with personal property subject to possession or use.
- 4. Real property, tax and specific assessment liens.
- 5. Personal property subject to a mechanic's lien for maintenance and improvements.
- 6. Air rights.
- 7. Certain insurance contracts.
- 8. Right to land.

(d) Refiling Of Notice.—

For purposes of this section:

(1) General Rule.—An application for a refiling of the notice prescribed in paragraph (b) during the period of 10 years from the date of the original filing of the notice, shall be treated as filed on the date of the original filing, or as soon as is subsequent to the expiration of such period.

(2) Place For Filing.—

A notice so filed during the period referred to in paragraph (b) shall be filed:

- 1. In the office of the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed, and

2. In the case of real property, and the fact of refiling is apparent, in an office to which the notice referred to in paragraph (b) is filed.

For any new notice filed during the period to the date of a return of a tax, or any other document filed, the

Secretary, received written information on the manner prescribed in regulations issued by the Secretary concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence, if a notice of such change is filed in accordance with subsection (b) in the State in which such residence is located.

(e) Required Refiling Period.—In the case of any notice given, the term "required refiling period" means the period of 1 year, the longest period ending 10 days after the expiration of 10 years after the date of the assessment of the tax, or

(f) Refiling.—The notice and copies of the notice referred to in subsection (a) may be furnished to the Secretary. Such notice and copies may be furnished to any other person by the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative.

Sec. 6325. Release Of Lien Or Discharge Of Property.

(a) Release Of Lien.—Subject to each regulation as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any internal revenue tax not later than 30 days after the day on which:

(1) Liability Satisfied or Dischargeable.—The Secretary finds that the liability for the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereto, has been fully satisfied or has become legally dischargeable, or

(2) Bond Accepted.—There is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereto, within the time prescribed by law (including any extension of such time), and that is in accordance with such requirements relating to terms, conditions, and form of the bond as the regulations thereon, as may be specified by such regulations.

Sec. 6103. Confidentiality and Disclosure of Returns and Return Information.

(a) Disclosure of Certain Returns and Return Information For Tax Administration Purposes.—

(1) Disclosure of amount of outstanding lien.—If a notice of tax has been filed pursuant to section 6323(b), the amount of the outstanding obligation incurred by such lien may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such lien or intends to obtain a right in such property.
