Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes

If any person fails to pay any tax, interest or other amount due, the same and all interest thereon, and any amount of additional amounts imposed by law, or any administrative penalty together with any costs that may accrue in collection thereof, or if the Secretary of the United States makes a deposit and right to property, whenever real or personal, to satisfy such debts:

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the period imposed by section 6321 (the "date of the filing") the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed for a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (b) has been filed by the Secretary.

In Place For Filing; Form.—

(1) Place For Filing.—The notice referred to in subsection (b) shall be filed:

(A) Under State Laws:

(i) Real Property - In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated;

(ii) Personal Property - In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated, except that State law merely conforming to nonacting Federal law establishing a national filing system does not constitute a second office for filing as designated by the laws of such State, or

(B) With Clerk Of District Court - In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district in which the property subject to lien is situated, whenever the State has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A); or

(C) With Recorder Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia - In the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(c) State Or Property Subject To Lien.—For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2) property shall be deemed to be situated:

(A) For Property - In the case of real property, its physical location;

(B) For Other Property - In the case of other property, wherever it may be maintained at the residence of its taxpayer at the time of the filing of the notice;

(C) For Motor Vehicles - In the residence of the corporation engaged in the business of less than the principal place of business of the customer, producer, and the residence of the taxpayer whose residence is without the United States and is known to be in the Chamber of Commerce;

(D) For Other Property - In the case of any other property, in accordance with the content of the notice referred to in subsection (b) as filed pursuant to the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the form or place of service of such notice.

Note: See section 6323(b) for protection for certain interests even though notice of lien imposed by section 6321 is filed with respect to:

- 1. Substituted
Motor Vehicles
- 2. Personal property purchased at retail
- 3. Personal property purchased in casual sale
- 4. Personal property subjected to possessory lien
- 5. Real property tax and special assessment liens
- 6. Residential property subject to a mechanic's lien for certain repairs and improvements
- 7. Attorney's liens
- 8. Certain insurance contracts
- 9. Partnership interest

Refiling Of Notice.—For purpose of this section:

(1) General Rule.—Unless notice of lien is refiled in the manner prescribed in paragraph (2) during the required refiling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed, in accordance with subsection (b) after the expiration of such refiling period.

(2) Place For Filing.—A notice of lien refiled during the required refiling period shall be effective only:

(A) If:

(i) the notice of lien is filed in the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed, and

(ii) in the case of real property, and the fact of refiling is entered and recorded in an index to the extent required by section 6324, and

(B) in the case in which 90 days or more prior to the date of a notice of filing of lien under subparagraph (A), the Secretary receives written information in the manner prescribed in regulations issued by the Secretary concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence if a notice of filing of lien is filed in accordance with subsection (b) in the State in which such residence is located.

Required Refiling Period.—In the case of any notice of lien, the term "refiling period" means:

(A) the first year beginning at or after the expiration of 10 years after the date of the assessment of the tax; and

(B) the one-year period beginning with the expiration of 10 years after the date of the previous required refiling period for each notice of lien.

Sec. 6325. Release Of Lien Or Discharge Of Property.

Release Of Lien.—Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any internal revenue tax not later than 30 days after the day on which:

(1) Liability Satisfied or Unenforceable - The Secretary finds that the liability for the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, has been fully satisfied or has become legally unenforceable;

(2) Bond Accepted - There is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, within the time prescribed by law (including any extension of such time), and that is in accordance with such regulations relating to terms, conditions, and form of the bond and sureties thereon, as may be specified by such regulations.

Sec. 6103. Confidentiality and Disclosure of Returns and Return Information.

(a) Disclosure of Certain Returns and Return Information For Tax Administration Purposes.—

(1) Disclosure of amount of outstanding benefit notice of lien has been filed pursuant to section 6324(b), the amount of the outstanding obligation secured by such lien may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory written evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such lien, or intends to obtain a right in such property.
