Your Outstanding Principal Balance at the beginning of the Close-out Period will be determined by summing your principal balance on the day after the Conversion Date and continuing until the full Outstanding Principal Balance has been paid. Your principal balance on the day after the Conversion Date (and continuing until the full Outstanding Principal Balance has been paid) will be determined by summing the principal balance on the day before the Conversion Date and continuing until the full Outstanding Principal Balance has been paid. If you have used Equity Source Account checks that have not been posted to your account as of the Conversion Date, and those checks are subsequently paid by us, your initial Close-out Period Principal Balance will be increased on subsequent periodic Billing Statements to reflect such loans.

The rate of interest (Annual Percentage Rate) during the Close-out Period will be determined and will vary based upon the Reference Rate described in the Agreement and Paragraph 1(D) hereof.

The "Current Reference Rate" is the most recent Reference Rate available sixty (60) days prior to each "Change Date", defined below:

The Reference Rate so your initial Billing Cycle shall be determined in one of two ways. If your initial Billing Date occurs in the same month as the effective date of this Agreement, the Reference Rate plus a "Margin" of Your rate of interest ("Initial Percentage Rate") shall be the Referenced Rate plus a "Margin" of which the effective date of this Agreement occurs.

In the event such a Referee's Rate ceases to be published by the Main Street Journal, we will select a new Referee's Rate that is based upon comparable information, and if necessary, the Main Street Journal may publish a new Referee's Rate.

The rate of interest ("Annual Percentage Rate") will be determined and will vary based upon a "Reference Rate". This Reference rate shall be the prime rate of interest as published in the Money Rates Section of the Wall Street Journal on the first business day of each month, regardless of when such rates were quoted by the Commercial Banks to the Wall Street Journal. During the Closed-End Repayment Term you agree to pay or before the payment due date shown on each Periodic Billing Statement a minimum payment due computed in the same way as above, plus 1/40th of your initial Closed-End Principal Balance owed you at the end of the revolving line of credit. If you have used an equity source account check that has not been posted to your account as of the conversion date, as defined in the Agreement, and that check is subsequently paid by us provided in Paragraph 2 (c) of the Agreement, instead of your initial Closed-End Principal Balance, a fraction of the payment amount thereafter will include, instead of 1/40th of your initial Closed-End Principal Balance, a fraction of the outstanding principal balance of that check that has a numerator of 1 and a denominator equal to the number of Billing Cycles left in the Closed-End Repayment Term, so that your account is fully paid in substance.

Upon payment in full of all sums secured by this Mortgage, and termination of the Agreement, we shall promptly refund to you any funds held by us. If under paragraph 3, the property is sold, acquired by us, we shall apply, no later than immediately prior to the sale of the property or its acquisition by us, any funds held by us at the time of application as a credit against the sums secured by this Mortgage.

Payments will then be applied similarly to Finance Charges and the fraction of the initial Closed-End Principal Balance due on the next oldest past due statement, and then to successive past due statements, until all past due Finance Charges and the fraction of the initial Closed-End Principal Balance due are fully paid. The balance of your payments will next be applied to the amounts stated due on the current periodic Billing Statement in the following order: (1) Insurance premiums billed and past due; (2) any Annual Fee which is due and payable; (3) any other charge, excluding insurance premiums, authorized by the Agreement; (4) Finance Charges billed but not past due; (5) insurance premiums billed but not yet past due as of the current statement; and (6) payment of any outstanding Principal Balance. Any balance of payment will be applied to payment of a Finance Charge which accrues after the Periodic Billing Statement date and prior to the date payment was received by us. Any remaining amount will create a credit balance. Charges incurred pursuant to paragraph 7 hereof will be treated as Finance Charges for purposes of application of payments only.

The insurance carrier providing the insurance shall be chosen by you subject to our approval which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

All insurance policies and renewals shall be acceptable to us and shall include a standard mortgage clause. We shall have the right to hold the policies and renewals. Our action may include, paying any sums secured by a lien which has priority over this Mortgage, appearing in court, paying reasonable attorneys' fees and entering on the property to make repairs. Although we may take action under this paragraph 7, we do not have to do so.

Any amounts disbursed by us under this paragraph 7 shall become additional debt of yours secured by this Mortgage. Unless you and we agree to other terms of payment, these amounts shall bear interest from the date of disbursement at the rate provided in the Agreement and shall be payable with interest upon notice from us to you requesting payment.
