If Borrower fails to perform the covenants and agreements contained in this Security Instrument, or there is a legal proceeding due to any negligence of Lender, Lender may take such action as is necessary to protect his property to make repairs. Although Lender may take action under paying reasonable attorney fees and attorney costs incurred on the Property to make repairs. Although Lender may take action under this provision, Lender may not sue for attorney fees and costs incurred by Lender in doing so.

Unless Lender and Borrower otherwise agree in writing, insurance proceeds shall be applied to restoration or repair of the Property damaged, if the restoration or repair is economically feasible and Lender's security is not breached. If the restoration or repair is not economically feasible or Lender's security would be breached, the insurance proceeds shall be applied to the security interest in the Property or to the security interest in any other property which may be held by Lender as security for the debt. The insurance proceeds shall be applied to pay sums accrued by this Security Instrument, whether or not then due. The 30-day period will begin when the notice settles a claim, when Lender may collect the insurance proceeds. Lender may use the proceeds to repair or replace the Property or to pay sums accrued by this Security Instrument, whether or not then due. The 30-day period will begin when the notice settles a claim, in days not later than 30 days after Lender receives notice from Lender that the insurance carrier has offered to abandon the Property, in days not later than 30 days after Lender receives notice from Lender that the insurance carrier has offered to abandon the Property, whichever is not later due, with any excess paid to Borrower. 10. Condemnation. The proceeds of any award or claim for damages, direct or consequential, in connection with any condemnation or other taking of any part of the Property, or for conveyance in lieu of condemnation, are hereby assigned and shall be paid to Lender.

In the event of a total taking of the Property, the proceeds shall be applied to the sums secured by this Security Instrument, whether or not then due, with any excess paid to Borrower. In the event of a partial taking of the Property in which the fair market value of the Property immediately before the taking is equal to or greater than the amount of the sums secured by this Security Instrument immediately before the taking, unless Borrower and Lender otherwise agree in writing, the sums secured by this Security Instrument shall be reduced by the amount of the proceeds multiplied by the following fraction: (a) the total amount of the sums secured immediately before the taking, divided by (b) the fair market value of the Property immediately before the taking. Any balance shall be paid to Borrower. In the event of a partial taking of the Property in which the fair market value of the Property immediately before the taking is less than the amount of the sums secured immediately before the taking, unless Borrower and Lender otherwise agree in writing or unless applicable law otherwise provides, the proceeds shall be applied to the sums secured by this Security Instrument whether or not the sums are then due.

If the Property is abandoned by Borrower, or if, after notice by Lender to Borrower that the condemnor offers to make an award or settle a claim for damages, Borrower fails to respond to Lender within 30 days after the date the notice is given, Lender is authorized to collect and apply the proceeds, at its option, either to restoration or repair of the Property or to the sums secured by this Security Instrument, whether or not then due.

Lender may choose to make this refund by reducing the principal owed under the Note or by making a direct payment to Borrower. If a refund reduces principal, the reduction will be treated as a partial prepayment without any prepayment charge under the Note.
