(A) Change Dates

The interest rate I will pay may change on the first day - october 1, 1998 , and on that day every 12th month thereafter. Each date on which my !neres" are could change. Is called a "Change Date."

(B) The Index

Beginning with the first Change Date, my interest rate will be updet on an index. The "Index" is the weekly average yield on United States Treasury securities adjusted to a constant matterly of 1 year, as made available by the Federal Reserve Board. The most recent index figure available as of the date 45 days before each Change Date is called the "Current Index."

If the Index is no longer available, the Note Holder will chanse a new Index that is based upon comparable information. The Note Holder will give me notice of this choice.

(C) Calculation of Changes

Before each Change Date, the Note Holder will calculate my new interest rate by add ig

TWO AND 750/1000 purcentage points (%) to the Current 750 Index. The Note Holder will then round the result of this addition to the hearest one-eighth of one percentage point (0.125%). Subject to the limits stated in Section 4(D) below, this rounded amount will be my now interest rate until the next Change Date

The Note Holder will then determine the amount of the monthly payment that would be sufficient to repay the unpaid principal that I am expected to owe at the Change Date in full on the Maturity Date at my new interest into in substantially equal payments. The result of this calculation will be the new amount of my monthly payment,

(D) Limits on interest Rate Changes

The interest rate I am required to pay at the first Change Date will not be greater than

% or less than %. Thereafter, my interest rate will never be increased 4.125 6.125 or decreased on any single Change Date by more than two percentage points (2.0%) from the rate of interest I have been paying for the preceding 12 manths. My interest rate will never be greater than

(E) Effective Date of Changes

My new Interest rate will become effective on each Change Date. I will pay the amount of my new mornthly payment beginning on the first monthly payment date after the Change Date until the amount of my monthly payment changes again.

(F) Natice of Changes

The Note Holder will deliver or mail to me a notice of any changes in my interest rate and the amount of my monthly payment before the effective date of any change. The notice will include information required by law to be given me and also the title and telephone number of a person who will answer any question I may have regarding the notice.
