Filed this _____ day of _____, 19_____, at _____ Clerk (or Registrar).
Form 668 (M) (Rev. 1-91)
Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code
Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes
If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount (including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessment penalty together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto) shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person.
Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.
Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed (or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability) is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.
Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.
(a) Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors. —The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (f) has been filed by the Secretary.
(b) Place For Filing Notice; Form.—
(i) Place For Filing. —The notice referred to in subsection (e) shall be filed:
(A) Under State Laws
(i) Real Property. —In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; and
(ii) Personal Property. —In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision); as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; except that State law conforming to reenacting Federal law establishing a national filing system does not constitute a second office for filing as designated by the laws of such State; or
(B) With Clerk Of District Court. —In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district in which the property subject to lien is situated, whenever the State has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A); or
(C) With Recorder Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia. —In the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.
(ii) Refiling Of Notice. —For purposes of this section:
(i) General Rule. —Unless notice of lien is filed in the manner prescribed in paragraph (ii) during the required refiling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed (in accordance with subsection (f)) after the expiration of such refiling period.
(ii) Place For Filing. —A notice of lien filed during the required refiling period shall be effective only:
(A) If:
(i) Such notice of lien is filed in the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed; and
(ii) In the case of real property, and the fact of refiling is entered and recorded in an index to the extent required by subsection (f) (4); and
(iii) In any case in which, 90 days or more prior to the date of a refiling of notice of lien under subparagraph (A), the Secretary, by written notice to the person liable to pay the tax, prescribes in regulations issued by the Secretary concerning exchange in the taxpayer's residence, if a notice of such lien is also filed in accordance with subsection (f) in the State in which such residence is located;
(b) Required Refiling Period. —In the case of any notice of lien, the term "required refiling period" means:
(i) the one-year period ending 90 days after the date of the assessment of the tax; and
(ii) the one-year period ending with the expiration of 10 years after the close of the preceding required refiling period for such notice of lien.
Sec. 6325. Release Of Lien Or Discharge Of Property.
(a) Release Of Lien. —Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any individual or entity not later than 30 days after the day on which:
(i) Likely Satisfied Or Unenforceable. —The Secretary finds that the liability for the amount assessed, together with all interest (or part thereof), has been fully satisfied or has become legally unenforceable; or
(ii) Bond Accepted. —There is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond, that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, within the time, year, and by law (including any extension of such time), and that is in accordance with such requirements relating to terms, conditions, and form of the bond and sureties thereon, as may be specified by such regulations.
Sec. 6103. Confidentiality and Disclosure of Returns and Return Information.
(a) Disclosure of Certain Returns and Return Information For Tax Administration Purposes.
(2) Disclosure of amount of outstanding lien.—If a notice of lien has been filed pursuant to section 6323(f), the amount of the outstanding obligation secured by such lien may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory written evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such lien or intends to obtain a right in such property.
