2. The trustee or to the holders of the note hereby secured making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes or assessments may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate rendered from the appropriate public office without regard to the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or to the validity of any tax, assessment, lease, rental, tax bill or title of claim thereof.

3. At the option of the holders of the note and without notice to First Party, its successors or assigns, all unpaid indebtedness incurred by this trust deed shall, notwithstanding anything in the note or in this trust deed to the contrary, become due and payable at immediately in the case of default in making payment of any installment of principal or interest on the note, or in the event of the failure of First Party or its successors or assigns in the day of the month specifically set forth above, giving one month, and such default shall continue for three days, said option to be exercised at any time after the expiration of said three day period.

4. When the indebtedness hereby secured shall become due whether by acceleration or otherwise, holders of the note or trustee shall have the right to foreclose the lessee herein, in any suit to foreclose the lessee herein, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the decree for late all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of trustee or holders of the note for attorney's fees, trustee's fees, appraiser's fees, valuations for documentary and expert evidence, stenographic charges, publication costs and costs which may be estimated as to items to be expended after entry of decree at purchasing all such abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, guarantee policies, Title certificates, and similar data and assurances with respect to title as trustee or holders of the note may deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to holders of the note which may be due and/or subject to such decree the title to or the value of the premises. All expenditures and expenses of the nature in this paragraph mentioned shall become so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and shall be paid and/or collected by trustee or holders of the note in connection with any proceeding, including probate and bankruptcy proceeding, in which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant, by reason of this trust deed or any indebtedness hereby secured, or the preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after accrual of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced, or for preparations for the defense of any attachment suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced.

5. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: First, no account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof; second, all other items which under the terms herein constitute secured indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the note, with interest thereon as herein provided; third, all principal and interest remaining unpaid on the note; fourth, any surplus to First Party, its legal representatives, assigns, as their rights may appear.

6. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill in foreclosure, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of all premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the adequacy or inadequacy at the time of application for such receiver, of the portion or portions, if any, liable for the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then reckoned as a homestead or not and the trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further time when First Party, its successors or assigns, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or as usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to add the net income not paid in whole or in part at (1) the indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lessee herein or of such record, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

7. Trustee or to the holders of the note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.
