After the first year, the students will receive a letter from the university, which will include information about the program and the requirements for the second year.

After the initial period of exploration, the market became more settled and there was a steady increase in the number of companies involved in the industry. This growth was driven by the increasing demand for high-quality, low-cost materials, as well as the development of new technologies and processes. The industry has also been shaped by regulatory changes, such as the introduction of environmental standards and safety regulations, which have led to significant improvements in product quality and production efficiency.

As a result, the first step in the process of developing a new product or service is to identify the needs and wants of the target market.
