The Grantor . . . covenant . . . and agree . . . as follows: (1) To pay said indebtedness, and the interest thereon, as herein and in said notes provided, or according to any agreement extending time of payment; (2) to pay prior to the first day of June in each year, all taxes and assessments against said premises, and on demand to exhibit receipts therefor; (3) within sixty days after destruction or damage, rebuild or repair all buildings or improvements on said premises that may have been destroyed or damaged; (4) to waive to said premises which may be condemned or suffered; (5) to keep all buildings now or at any time on said premises insured in companies to be selected by the grantee herein, who is hereby authorized to place such insurance or companies acceptable to the holder of the first mortgage indebtedness, with loss clause attached payable first, to the first Trustee or Mortgagor, and, second, to the Trustee herein as their interests may appear, which policies shall be left and remain with the said Mortgagors or Trustee until the indebtedness is fully paid; (6) to pay all prior encumbrances, and the interest thereon, at the time or times when the same shall become due and payable.

In case of failure so to insure, or pay taxes or assessments, or the prior encumbrances or the interest thereon when due, the grantee or the holder of said indebtedness, may procure such insurance or pay such taxes or assessments, or discharge or purchase any tax bill or title affecting said premises or pay all prior encumbrances and the interest thereon from time to time, and all money so paid, the grantor . . . agree . . . to repay immediately without demand, and the sum so expended from the date of payment at seven per cent, per annum, shall be so much additional indebtedness secured hereby.

In the event of a breach of any of the aforesaid covenants or agreements the whole of said indebtedness, including principal and all earned interest shall, at the option of the legal holder thereof, without notice, become immediately due and payable, and with interest thereon from time of such breach, at seven per cent, per annum, shall be recoverable by foreclosure thereof, or by suit at law, or both, the same as if all said indebtedness had then matured by express terms.

It is agreed by the grantor . . . that all expenses and disbursements paid or incurred in behalf of complainant in connection with the foreclosed or brief—including reasonable solicitor fees, outlays for documentary evidence, stenographer's charges, cost of procuring or completing an abstract showing the whole title of said premises, recording fees, costs of survey and indebtedness, as such, may be a party, shall also be paid by the grantor . . . And such expenses and disbursements, whether an action be brought or not, shall be taxed as costs and included in any judgment, and the same, whether decree of sale shall have entered or not, shall not be discontinued, nor a re-litigation had, until all such expenses and disbursements, and the costs of suit, including solicitor's fees have been paid. The grantor . . . for said grantor . . . and for the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of said grantor . . . waive all right to the possession of, and income from, said premises pending such foreclosure proceedings, and agree . . . that upon the filing of any bill to foreclose this Trust Deed, the court in which such bill is filed, may at once and without notice to the said grantor . . . or to any party claiming under said grantor . . . appoint a receiver to take possession or charge of said premises with power to collect the rents, issues and profits of the said premises.
