The possession of Mortgagee may continue until all indebtedness secured hereby is paid in full or until the delivery of a Master's Deed or Special Commissioner's Deed pursuant to a decree foreclosing the lien hereof, but if no deed be issued then until the expiration of the statutory period during which it may be issued. Mortgagee shall, however, have the discretionary power at any time to refuse to take or to abandon possession of said premises without affecting the lien hereon. Mortgagee shall have all powers, if any, which it might have had without this paragraph. No suit shall be sustainable against Mortgagee based upon acts or omissions relating to the subject matter of this paragraph unless commenced within sixty days after Mortgagee's possession ceases.

(8) If the Mortgagor sells the property or any part thereof, or any interest therein either by Articles of Agreement for Deed, transfer of title, or assignment of the beneficial interest in the land trust or any part thereof, then the Mortgagee may declare the entire indebtedness secured by this Mortgage due and payable immediately, and the acceptance of payments upon said indebtedness shall not constitute a waiver of the right to demand immediate repayment.
