Including the rents and profits arising or to arise from the real estate from default until the time to redeem from any sale under judgment of foreclosure shall expire. Situated in the County of Cook and State of Illinois, hereby releasing and waiving all rights under and by virtue of the Homestead Exemption Laws of the State of Illinois, and all right to retain possession of said premises after any default, prior breach of any of the covenants, agreements, or provisions herein contained.

And it is further provided and agreed that if default be made in the payment of said contract (or any of them) or any part thereof, or the interest thereon or any part thereof, when due, or in case of waste or non-payment of taxes or assessments, or neglect to procure or renew insurance, as hereinafter provided, then and in such case, the whole of said principal and interest secured by the contract in this mortgage mentioned shall thereupon, at the option of the holder of the contract, become immediately due and payable; anything herein or in said contract contained to the contrary notwithstanding and this mortgage may, without notice to said Mortgagor of said option or election, be immediately foreclosed; and it shall be lawful for said Mortgagee, agents or attorneys, to enter into and upon said premises and to receive all rents, issues and profits thereof, the same when collected, after the deduction of reasonable expenses, to be applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby, and the court wherein any such suit may be filed may appoint a Receiver to collect said rents, issues, and profits to be applied on the interest accruing after foreclosure sale, the taxes and the amount found due by such decree.

If this mortgage is subject and subordinate to another mortgage, it is hereby expressly agreed that should any default be made in the payment of any installment of principal or of interest on said prior mortgage, the holder of this mortgage may pay such installment of principal or of interest and the amount so paid with legal interest thereon from the time of such payment may be added to the indebtedness secured by this mortgage and the accompanying contract shall be deemed to be secured by this mortgage, and it is further expressly agreed that in the event of such default or should any suit be commenced to foreclose said prior mortgage, then the amount secured by this mortgage and the accompanying contract shall become and be due and payable at any time thereafter at the sole option of the owner or holder of this mortgage.

And the said Mortgagor further covenants and agrees to and with said Mortgagee that Mortgagor will in the meantime pay all taxes and assessments on the said premises, and will also, for his security or the payment of said indebtedness keep all buildings that may at any time be upon said premises insured for fire, extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief in some reliable company, up to the insurable value thereof, or up to the amount remaining unpaid of the said indebtedness by suitable policies, payable in case of loss to the said Mortgagee and to deliver to it all policies of insurance thereto, as soon as effected, and all renewal certificates therefor; and said Mortgagee shall have the right to collect, receive and receipt in the hands of said Mortgagor or otherwise; for any and all money that may become payable and collectable upon any such policies of insurance by reason of damage to or destruction of said buildings or any of them, and apply the same less all reasonable expenses in obtaining such money in satisfaction of the money secured hereby, or in case said Mortgagee shall so elect, may use the same in repairing or rebuilding such building and in case of refusal or neglect of said Mortgagor thus to insure or deliver such policies, or to pay taxes, said Mortgagee may procure such insurance or pay such taxes, and all monies thus paid shall be secured hereby, and shall bear interest at eight percent and be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of said premises, or out of such insurance money if not otherwise paid by said Mortgagor.

If not prohibited by law or regulation, this mortgage and all sums hereby secured shall become due and payable at the option of the Mortgagee and without notice to Mortgagor, forthwith upon the conveyance of Mortgagor's title to all or any portion of said mortgaged property and premises, or upon the vesting of such title in any manner in persons or entities other than, or with, Mortgagor unless the purchaser or transferee assumes the indebtedness secured hereby with the consent of the Mortgagee.

And said Mortgagor further agrees that in case of default in the payment of the interest on said contract when it becomes due and payable it shall bear like interest with the principal of said contract.

And it is further expressly agreed by and between said Mortgagor and Mortgagee, that if default be made in the payment of said contract or in any of them or any part thereof, or the interest thereon, or any part thereof, when due, or in case of a breach in any of the covenants, or agreements herein contained, or in case said Mortgagee is made a party to any suit by reason of the existence of this mortgage, then or in any such cases, said Mortgagor shall at once owe said Mortgagee reasonable attorney's or solicitor's fees for protecting its interest in such suit and for the collection of the amount due and secured by this mortgage, whether by foreclosure proceedings or otherwise, and alien is hereby given upon said premises for such fees, and in case of foreclosure hereof, a decree shall be entered for such reasonable fees, together with whatever other indebtedness may be due and secured hereby.

And it is further mutually understood and agreed, by and between the parties hereto, that the covenants, agreements and provisions herein contained shall apply to, and, as far as the law allows, be binding upon and be for the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of said parties respectively.

In witness whereof, the said Mortgagor have hereunto set their hand & and seal this 1st day of JUNE A.D. 1994.

Section 3-4 of the Illinois Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney for Property Law

Section 3-4. Explanation of powers granted in the statutory short form power of attorney for property. This Section defines each category of powers listed in the statutory short form power of attorney for property and the effect of granting powers to an agent. When the title or any of the following categories is retained (not struck out) in a statutory property power form, the effect will be to grant the agent all of the principal's rights, powers and dispositions with respect to the types of property and transactions covered by the retained category, subject to any limitations on the granted powers that appear on the face of the form. The agent will have authority to exercise each granted power for and in the name of the principal with respect to all of the principal's interests in every type of property or transaction covered by the granted power at the time of exercise, whether the principal's interests are direct or indirect, whole or fractional, legal, equitable or contractual, as a joint tenant or tenant in common or held in any other form; but the agent will not have power under any of the statutory categories (a) through (o) to make gifts of the principal's property, to exercise powers to appoint to others or to change any beneficiary whom the principal has designated to take the principal's interests at death under any will, trust, joint tenancy, beneficiary form or contractual arrangement. The agent will be under no duty to exercise granted powers or to assume control of or responsibility for the principal's property or affairs; but when granted powers are exercised, the agent will be required to use due care to act for the benefit of the principal in accordance with the terms of the statutory property power and will be liable for negligent exercise. The agent may act in person or through others reasonably employed by the agent for that purpose and will have authority to sign and deliver all instruments, negotiate and enter into all agreements and do all other acts reasonably necessary to implement the exercise of the powers granted to the agent.

(a) Real estate transactions. The agent is authorized to: buy, sell, exchange, rent and lease real estate (which term includes, without limitation, real estate subject to a land trust and all beneficial interests in and powers of direction under any land trust); collect all rent, sole proceeds and earnings from real estate; convey, assign and accept title to real estate; grant easements, create conditions and release rights of homestead with respect to real estate; create land trusts and exercise all powers under land trusts; hold, possess, maintain, repair, improve, subdivide, manage, operate and insure real estate; pay, contest, protest and compromise real estate taxes and assessments; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to real estate which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(b) Financial institution transactions. The agent is authorized to: open, close, continue and control all accounts and deposits in any type of financial institution (which term includes, without limitation, banks, trust companies, savings and building and loan associations, credit unions and brokerage firms); deposit in and withdraw from and write checks on any financial institution account or deposit; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to financial institution transactions which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(c) Stock and bond transactions. The agent is authorized to: buy and sell all types of securities (which term includes, without limitation, stocks, bonds, mutual funds and all other types of investment securities and financial instruments); collect, hold and safekeep all dividends, interest, earnings, proceeds of sale, distributions, shares, certificates and other evidences of ownership paid or distributed with respect to securities; exercise all voting rights with respect to securities in person or by proxy, enter into voting trusts and consent to limitations on the right to vote; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to securities which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(d) Tangible personal property transactions. The agent is authorized to: buy and sell, lease, exchange, collect, possess and take title to all tangible personal property; move, store, ship, restore, maintain, repair, improve, replace, insulate, repair tangible personal property; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to tangible personal property which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(e) Safe deposit box transactions. The agent is authorized to: open, continue and have access to all safe deposit boxes; sign, renew, release or terminate any safe deposit contract; drill or suspend any safe deposit box; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to safe deposit matters which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(f) Insurance and annuity transactions. The agent is authorized to: procure, acquire, continue, renew, terminate or otherwise deal with any type of insurance or annuity contract (which term excludes, without limitation, life, accident, health, disability, automobile casualty, property or liability insurance); pay premiums or contributions on or surrender and collect all distributions, proceeds or benefits payable under any insurance or annuity contract; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to insurance and annuity contracts which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(g) Retirement plan transactions. The agent is authorized to: contribute to, withdraw from and deposit funds in any type of retirement plan (which term includes, without limitation, any qualified or nonqualified pension, profit sharing, stock bonus, employee savings and other retirement plan, individual retirement accounts, deferred compensation plan and any other type of employee benefit plan); select and change payment options for the principal under any retirement plan; make transfers contributions from any retirement plan to other retirement plans or individual retirement accounts; exercise all investment powers available under any qualified retirement plan; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to retirement plans and retirement plan account balances which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(h) Social Security, unemployment and military services benefits. The agent is authorized to: prepare, sign and file any claim or application for Social Security, unemployment or military service benefits; sue for, settle or abandon any claims to any benefit or assistance under any federal statute, treaty or regulation, control, direct or have control, collect, accept for, and take title to and hold all benefits under any Social Security, unemployment, Military services or other state, federal, local or foreign statute or regulation; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to Social Security, unemployment, military services and governmental benefits which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(i) Tax matters. The agent is authorized to: sign, verify and file all the principal's federal, state and local returns, joint, single, groups, wife, other tax returns, including joint returns and declarations of estimated tax; pay off taxes, fines, late fees and receive all tax refunds; determine and apply all the principal's tax credits and refunds representing the principal before any federal, state or local revenue agency, including body and sign and deliver all tax powers of attorney on behalf of the principal that may be necessary for such purposes; waive rights and sign all documents on behalf of the principal as required to settle, pay and compromise all tax liabilities; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to tax matters which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(j) Claims and litigation. The agent is authorized to: institute, prosecute, defend, negotiate, compromise, arbitrate, settle and discharge of any claim in favor of or against the principal or any property interests of the principal; collect and receipt for any claim or settlement proceeds and waive or release all rights of the principal; employ attorneys and others and enter into contingency agreements and other contracts as necessary in connection with litigation; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to claims and litigation which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(k) Commodity and option transactions. The agent is authorized to: buy, sell, exchange, assign, convey, settle and exercise commodities futures contracts and call and put options on stocks and stock indices traded on a regulated options exchange and collect and receipt for all proceeds of any such transactions; establish or continue option accounts for the principal with any securities or futures broker; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to commodities and options which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(l) Business operations. The agent is authorized to: organize or continue and conduct any business (which term includes, without limitation, any farming, manufacturing, service, mining, retailing or other type of business operation) in any form, whether as a proprietorship, joint venture, partnership, corporation, trust or other legal entity; operate, buy, sell, expand, contract, terminate or liquidate any business; direct, control, supervise, manage or participate in the operation of any business and engage, compensate and discharge business managers, employees, agents, attorneys, accountants and consultants; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to business interests and operations which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(m) Borrowing transactions. The agent is authorized to: borrow money; mortgage or pledge any real estate or tangible or intangible personal property as security for such purposes; sign, renew, extend, pay and satisfy any notes or other forms of obligation; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to secured and unsecured borrowing which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(n) Estate transactions. The agent is authorized to: accept, receipt for, exercise, release, reject, renounce, assign, disclaim, demand, sue for, claim and recover any legacy, bequest, devise, gift or other property interest or payment due or payable to or for the principal; assert any interest in and exercise any power over any trust, estate, or property subject to fiduciary control; establish a revocable trust solely for the benefit of the principal that terminates at the death of the principal and is then distributable to the legal representative of the estate of the principal; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to estates and trusts which the principal could if present and under no disability; provided, however, that the agent may not make or change a will and may not revoke or amend a trust revocable or amendable by the principal or require the trustee of any trust for the benefit of the principal to pay income or principal to the agent unless specific authority to that end is given, and specific reference to the trust is made, in the statutory property power form.

(o) All other property powers and transactions. The agent is authorized to: exercise all possible powers of the principal with respect to all possible types of property and interests in property, except to the extent the principal limits the generality of this category (o) by striking out one or more of categories (a) through (n) or by specifying other limitations in the statutory property power form.
