If Lender holds any additional security for any obligation secured hereby, it may enforce the sale thereof at its option, either before, contemporaneous with, or after any Mortgagee's sale is made hereunder, and on any sale of Borrower, Lender may, at its option, effect against any indebtedness owing by it to Borrower, the whole or any part of the indebtedness secured hereby. (22) Appointment of Receiver. Upon or at any time after the filing of a complaint to foreclose this Mortgage the court in which such complaint filed may appoint a receiver of the property or may appoint Lender as Mortgagee in possession. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency at the time of application for such receiver, of the person or persons, if any, liable for the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby and without regard to the then value of the property whether the same shall be then encumbered as a homestead or not. Such receiver or Mortgagee in possession shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of the premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit, as well as during any further time when Borrower, his executors or assigns, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the property during the whole said period. The court from time to time may authorize the receiver or Mortgagee in possession to apply the net income held by either of them or payment in whole or in part of the indebtedness and other sums secured hereby or in payment of any tax, general assessment or other law which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or superior to a decree foreclosing this Mortgage, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale.
