Every power or remedy hereby given to Borrower or to Lender or to which either of them may be otherwise entitled, may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient by them, and either of them may pursue inconsistent remedies. If Lender holds any additional security for any obligation secured hereby, it may enforce the sale thereof at its option, either before, contemporaneously with, or after any Mortgagee's sale is made hereunder, and on any default of Borrower, Lender may, at its option, offset against any indebtedness owing by it to Borrower, the whole or any part of the indebtedness secured hereby. (22) Appointment of Receiver. Upon or at any time after the filing of a complaint to foreclose this Mortgage the court in which such complaint filed may appoint a receiver of the property or may appoint Lender as Mortgagee in possession. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency at the time of application for such receiver, of the person or persons, if any, liable for the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby and without regard to the then value of the property, whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not. Such receiver or Mortgagee in possession shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of the premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit, as well as during any further times when Borrower, his successors or assigns, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the property during the whole said period. The court from time to time may authorize the receiver or Mortgagee in possession to apply the net income held by either of them in payment in whole or in part of the indebtedness and other sums secured hereby, or in payment of any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or superior to a decree foreclosing this Mortgage, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale. In case of a judicial sale, the property, or so much thereof as may then be affected by this Mortgage, may be sold in one parcel.
