B. In the event Mortgagee elects to permit any such insurance proceeds to be applied to pay for the cost of rebuilding or restoration of the buildings and improvements on the premises, such funds will be made available for disbursement by Mortgagee provided, however, that (1) should any insurance company have, in the opinion of Mortgagee, a defense against Mortgagee (but not against Mortgagee) to any claim for payment due to damage or destruction of the premises or any part thereof by reason of fire or other casualty, submitted by Mortgagee or any party on behalf of Mortgagee, or should such Company raise any defense against Mortgagee (but not against Mortgagee) to such payment or (2) should the net proceeds of such insurance collected by Mortgagee together with any funds deposited by Mortgagee with Mortgagee be less than the estimated cost of the requisite work as determined by Mortgagee, which estimate shall include a reasonable contingency, then in either case Mortgagee may, at its option, whether or not Mortgagee has received funds from any insurance settlements, declare the unpaid balance of the debt secured hereby to be immediately due and payable, and Mortgagee may then treat the same as in the case of any other default hereunder. In the event such proceeds are applied toward restoration or rebuilding, the buildings and improvements shall be so restored or rebuilt as to be of at least equal value and substantially the same character as prior to such damage or destruction. Such proceeds shall be made available, from time to time, upon the Mortgagee being furnished with satisfactory evidence of the estimated cost of completion thereof and with such architect's certificate, waivers of lien, contractor's sworn statements and other evidence of cost and of payments, including insurance against mechanical items and/or performance bond or bond in form satisfactory to Mortgagee which shall be the sole or a dual obligee, and which bonds shall be written with such surety company or companies as may be satisfactory to Mortgagee. All plans and specifications for such rebuilding or restoration shall not deny liability as to the insureds, such proceeds, after deducting therefrom any expenses incurred in the collection thereof, shall, subject to the provisions of subparagraph B and C hereof, be used to reimburse Mortgagee for the cost of rebuilding or restoration of buildings and improvements on the premises. In all other cases, such insurance proceeds may, at the option of Mortgagee, either be applied in reduction of the indebtedness secured hereby, whether due or not, or be held by the Mortgagee and used to reimburse Mortgagee for the cost of rebuilding or restoration of the buildings or improvements of the premises. In the event Mortgagee elects to apply said insurance proceeds in reduction of the indebtedness secured hereby, all expenses and fees of collection shall first be deducted and paid to Mortgagee, and it is further covenanted and agreed that should the net insurance proceeds be insufficient to pay the then existing indebtedness secured hereby, together with all accrued interest thereon, fees and charges, Mortgagee may, at its sole election, declare the entire unpaid balance of the debt, secured hereby to be immediately due and payable, and the failure to the payment thereof shall be a default hereunder.

7. Mortgagor hereby assigns, transfers and sets over unto Mortgagor the entire proceeds of any award or any claim for damages for eminent domain or by condemnation. The Mortgagor, hereby empowers Mortgagor, in the Mortgagee's sole discretion, to settle, compromise and adjust any and all claims or rights arising under any condemnation or eminent domain proceeding relating to the Premises or any portion thereof. Nothing contained in this Mortgage shall create any responsibility or obligation on the Mortgagee to collect any amount owing due to any condemnation or eminent domain proceeding or to rebuild, repair or replace any portion of the Premises or any improvements thereon or to perform any act hereunder. Mortgagee may elect to apply the proceeds of the award upon or in reduction of the indebtedness secured hereby, whether due or not, or to require Mortgagor to restore or rebuild, in which event the proceeds shall be held by Mortgagee and used to reimburse Mortgagor for the cost of the rebuilding or restoring of buildings or improvements on the Premises, in accordance with plans and specifications to be submitted to and approved by Mortgagee. If the Mortgagor is obligated to restore or Nothing contained in this Mortgage shall create any responsibility or obligation on the Mortgagee to collect any amount owing on any insurance policy; to rebuild, repair or replace any damaged or destroyed portion of the Premises or any improvements thereon; or to perform any act hereunder.

C. In case of loss after foreclosure proceedings have been instituted, the proceeds of any such insurance policies, if not applied as aforesaid in rebuilding or restoring the building or improvements, shall be used to pay the amount due in accordance with any decree of foreclosure, that may be entered in any such proceedings, and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner of the equity of redemption. If he shall then be entitled to the same, or as the court may direct. In case of the foreclosure of this Mortgage, the court in its decree may provide that the Mortgagee's clause attached to each of said insurance policies may be cancelled and that the decree may further provide that in case of one or more redemptions under said decree, pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, then and in every such case, each successive redeemer may cause the preceding loss clause attached to each insurance policy to be cancelled and a new loss clause to the attached hereto, making the loss thereunder payable to such redeemer. In the event of foreclosure sale, Mortgagee is hereby authorized, without the consent of Mortgagor, to assign any and all insurance policies to the purchaser at the sale, or to take such other steps as Mortgagee may deem advisable, to cause the interest of such purchaser to be protected by any of the said insurance policies.

any such repair or rebuilding. Disbursement of such insurance proceeds shall not exceed ninety percent (90%) of the value of the work performed from time to time, and at all times the undistributed balance of said proceeds remaining in the hands of the Mortgagee shall be at least sufficient to pay for the cost of completion of the work free and clear of liens.

10. At the option of Mortgagee, and without notice to Mortgagor, all unpaid indebtedness secured by this Mortgage shall, notwithstanding anything in the Note or in this Mortgage to the contrary, become due and payable (a) immediately in the case of default under the terms of the Note; (b) immediately in the event Mortgagor shall, without the prior written consent of Mortgagee, sell, transfer, convey, encumber, or assign the title to all or any portion of the premises, or the rents, issues, or profits therefrom, whether by operation of law, voluntarily or otherwise, or shall contract to do any of the foregoing, or shall grant an option to enter into a contract to do any of the foregoing, including, but not limited to, transfer to an Illinois Land Trust, or (c) immediately when default shall occur in the performance of any other agreement of the Mortgagor herein contained.

9. The Mortgagee making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes or assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate procured from the appropriate public office without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax, assessment, sale, forfeiture, tax lien or title or claim thereof.

8. In the event that the Mortgagor fails to make any payment or perform any act required hereunder, the Mortgagor may, but need not, make said payment or perform any act in any form and manner deemed expedient, and may, but need not, make full or partial, payments of principal or interest on prior encumbrances, if any, and purchase, discharge, compromise or settle any tax lien or other prior lien or title or claim thereof, or redeem from any tax sale or forfeiture affecting said premises or consent any tax or assessment. All moneys paid for any of the purposes herein authorized and all expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith, including attorneys' fees, and any other moneys advanced by Mortgagee to protect the mortgaged premises and the lien hereof, plus reasonable compensation to Mortgagee for each matter concerning which action herein authorized may be taken, shall be so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and shall become immediately due and payable without notice and with interest thereon at the rate payable on the principal outstanding under the Note. Indebtedness of Mortgagee shall never be considered as a waiver of any right accruing to it on account of any default hereunder on the part of Mortgagor.

Indebtedness secured hereby or be paid to any other party entitled thereto. If the amount of such award is insufficient to cover the cost of rebuilding or restoration, Mortgagor shall pay such costs in excess of the award, before being entitled to reimbursement out of the award. Any surplus which may remain out of said award after payment of such costs of rebuilding or restoration shall, at the option of Mortgagee, be applied on account of the indebtedness secured hereby or be paid to any other party entitled thereto.

7. In the event Mortgagee is required or authorized, by Mortgagee's election as aforesaid, to rebuild or restore, the proceeds of the award shall be paid out in the same manner as is provided for the payment of insurance proceeds toward the cost of rebuilding or restoration. If the amount of such award is insufficient to cover the cost of rebuilding or restoration, Mortgagor shall pay such costs in excess of the award, before being entitled to reimbursement out of the award. Any surplus which may remain out of said award after payment of such costs of rebuilding or restoration shall, at the option of Mortgagee, be applied on account of the indebtedness secured hereby or be paid to any other party entitled thereto.

13. Upon, or at any time the filing of a bill to foreclose this mortgage, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagor at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not during the pendency of such foreclosure suit, and in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be rents, issues, and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) the indebtedness

12. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: First, on account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including, but not limited to, all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof; second, all other items which under the terms hereof, constitute secured indebtedness in addition to that evidenced by the Note, with interest thereon as herein provided; third, all principal and interest remaining unpaid on other liabilities of Mortgagor to Mortgagee; fifth, any surplus to Mortgagor, its successor or assigns, as their rights may appear.

11. When the indebtedness hereby secured shall become due whether by acceleration or otherwise, Mortgagee shall have the right to foreclose the lien hereof. In any suit to foreclose the lien hereof, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the decree for sale all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Mortgagee for attorneys' fees, Mortgagee's fees, appraiser's fees, outlays for documentary and expert evidence, charges, publication costs and costs (which may be estimated as to items to be expended after entry of the decree) of procuring all such abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, guarantee policies, Torrens certificates, and similar data and assurances with respect to title as Mortgagee may deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to bidders at any sale which may be had pursuant to such decree the true condition of the title to or the value of the premises. All expenditures and expenses of the nature in this paragraph mentioned shall become so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and immediately due and payable, with interest thereon at the rate payable on outstanding principal under the Note, when paid or incurred by Mortgagee in connection with (a) any proceeding, including probate and bankruptcy proceedings, to which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant, by reason of this Mortgage or any indebtedness hereby secured; (b) preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after accrual of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; or (c) preparations for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced.

14. No action for the enforcement of the lien or of any provision hereof shall be subject to any defense which would not be good and available to the party interposing same in an action at law upon the Note hereby secured.

15. Mortgagee shall have the right to inspect the Premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

16. Mortgagee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence or condition of the Premises, nor shall Mortgagee be obligated to record this Mortgage or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence, or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Mortgagee, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.

17. Mortgagee shall release this Mortgage and the lien thereof by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this Mortgage has been fully paid.

18. This Mortgage and all provisions hereof, shall extend to and be binding upon Mortgagee and all persons claiming under or through Mortgagee, and the word "Mortgagee" when used herein shall include all such persons and all persons liable for the payment of the indebtedness or any part hereof, whether or not such persons shall have executed the Note or this Mortgage.

19. This Mortgage shall be governed by and interpreted according to the laws of the State of Illinois. In the event any provision of the Mortgage, or the Note, conflict with said law, such conflict shall not affect any other provision of the Mortgage, or the Note which can be given effect without reference to the conflict. In this regard, the provisions of the Mortgage and the Note shall be deemed severable.

20. The Mortgagee hereby waives any and all rights of redemption from sale under any order or decree of foreclosure of this Mortgage, on its own behalf and on behalf of each and every person, except decree or

The first part of the document is a title page containing the name of the court, the case number, and the names of the parties involved. It also includes the date of the hearing and the names of the attorneys representing each side.

The second part of the document is the opening statement, where the plaintiff's attorney outlines the facts of the case and the relief sought. This is followed by the defendant's opening statement, where they present their version of the events and any defenses they may have.

The third part of the document is the presentation of evidence. This includes the examination and cross-examination of witnesses, the presentation of physical evidence, and the reading of relevant documents. Each side has the opportunity to call witnesses and present their case.

The fourth part of the document is the closing arguments. Here, each attorney summarizes their case, highlights the key points of evidence, and makes their final appeal to the judge. The plaintiff's attorney goes first, followed by the defendant's attorney.

The fifth part of the document is the judge's decision. The judge will listen to the arguments and evidence presented and then deliver a verdict. This decision may include an award of damages or other relief. The judge's decision is based on the law and the facts presented in the case.

The sixth part of the document is the post-trial proceedings. This may include a motion for a new trial, a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, or an appeal to a higher court. The parties may also discuss settlement options.

The seventh part of the document is the final judgment and the entry of the judgment into the court's records. This marks the end of the trial and the beginning of the enforcement of the court's decision.

The eighth part of the document is the final report and the distribution of the court's decision. The judge's decision is typically written in a formal opinion, which is then entered into the court's records and made available to the public.
