IN THE EVENT OF A BREACH of any aforesaid covenants and agreements or in case of default in the payment of the note secured hereby or any installment of principal or interest therein according to the terms thereof, or if proceedings are instituted to enforce any other lien or charge upon any of said real estate, or for partition thereof, or upon the filing of a proceeding in bankruptcy by or against any one or more of the mortgagors, or if any one or more of the mortgagors shall make an assignment for the benefit of his creditors or if said property shall be placed under control of or in custody of any court, the whole of said indebtedness shall, at the option of the legal holder thereof, without notice become immediately due and payable and shall be recoverable by foreclosure hereof or by suit at law, or both, in like manner as if all of said indebtedness has then matured by lapse of time.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED by the grantors that in case a right of foreclosure or other right of procedure shall arise hereunder, the legal holder of said trustee for the benefit of such holder, shall have the right to bring such legal or equitable proceedings for the collection of the moneys hereby secured as they may deem necessary, that all reasonable expenses and disbursements, paid or incurred in behalf of the complainant in connection with the foreclosure hereof, including reasonable solicitor's fees, outlays for documentary evidence, stenographer's charges, cost of furnishing a Guarantee Title Insurance Policy (in the amount of the foreclosure sale price) or complete abstract to said premises shall be paid by the grantors; that the like expenses and disbursements, occasioned by any suit or proceeding wherein the grantee, or any holder of any part of said indebtedness, as such may be a party, shall also be paid by the grantors, that such fees, expenses and disbursements shall be an additional lien and charge upon said premises secured by this deed, may be taxed as costs and shall be included in any decree or order that may be rendered in such proceedings, and that such proceedings shall not be dismissed, nor shall any order for the sale of said premises be entered unless the same shall provide for the payment of said fees out of the proceeds thereof, nor shall a release be given, until all such fees, expenses and disbursements, and the costs of such suit have been paid.

The grantors waive all right to the possession of, and income from said premises pending such foreclosure proceedings, and until the period of redemption from any sale thereunder expires, whether there be redemption from such sale or not, and agree that upon the filing of any bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such bill is filed, may at once and without notice to the said grantors or any party claiming under said grantors, and regardless of whether said premises or any part thereof are then or at any time occupied as a homestead, appoint a receiver to take possession or charge of said premises with power to collect the rents, issues and profits of the said premises, during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and until the time to redeem the same from any sale thereunder shall expire; and such rents, issues and profits, including those collected during such period of redemption, may be applied toward the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, costs, taxes, insurance and other items necessary for the protection and preservation of said property.

If there be only one person designated herein as grantors, said word or words wherever used herein, and the verbs and pronouns associated therewith, although expressed as plural, shall be read and construed as singular.
