and all the qualities that go to make up the character of a good man, and especially the virtues that the members of the church should possess. The lectures will be delivered, according to the plan, the first week in October, and beginning the second week, will be delivered three evenings a week, so as to give the audience enough time to digest them. The lectures will be delivered in the auditorium of the Tabernacle, and the audience will be seated in the auditorium, and a large portion of the time will be spent in the auditorium.
