The grantor covenant and agree as follows: (1) To pay said indebtedness, and the interest thereon, as herein and in such manner provided, or according to any agreement extending time of payment; (2) to pay prior to the first day of June in each year all taxes and assessments against said premises, and on demand to exhibit receipts therefore; (3) within sixty days after assessment or damage to rebuild or restore all buildings or improvements on said premises that may have been destroyed or damaged; (4) that work on said premises shall not be committed or suffered; (5) to keep all buildings now or at any time on said premises insured or compensated to be selected by the grantee herein, who is hereby authorized to place such insurance in amounts sufficient to the holder of the first mortgage indebtedness, with loss clause attached payable first, to the First Trustee or Assignee and second to the Trustees herein as their interests may appear, which policies shall be left and remain with the said trustee or Trustee until the indebtedness is fully paid; (6) to pay all prior encumbrances, and the interest thereon, at the time or times when the same shall become due and payable.

In case of failure on the part of pay taxes or assessments, or the prior encumbrances or the interest thereon when due, the grantee or the holder of said indebtedness, may prosecute such insurance, or pay such taxes or assessments, or discharge or pay taxes or other fees affecting said premises or pay all prior encumbrances and the interest thereon from time to time; and all amounts so paid, the grantee agrees to repay immediately without demand and interest thereon from the date of payment at seven per cent per annum, shall be an march additional indebtedness accrued hereby.

In case of breach of any of the aforesaid covenants or agreements the whole of said indebtedness, including principal and all unpaid interest shall, at the option of legal holder thereof, without notice, become immediately due and payable, and such amount thereafter from time of such breach, at seven per cent, per annum, shall be recoverable by foreclosure thereof, or by suit at law, or both, the same as if all of said indebtedness had then matured by express terms.

In case of bankruptcy the grantor that all expenses and disbursements paid or incurred in behalf of claimant in connection with the foreclosures herein - including reasonable solicitor fees, costs for documentary evidence, stenographic charges, cost of preparing or completing abstract showing the whole title of said premises embracing foreclosure decree - shall be paid by the grantor; and the like expenses and disbursements, occasioned by any suit or proceedings wherein the grantee or any holder of any part of said indebtedness, as such, may be a party, shall also be paid by the grantor. All such expenses and disbursements shall be an additional lien upon said premises, shall be taxed as costs and included in any decree that may be rendered in such foreclosure proceedings, which proceeding, whether decree of sale shall have been entered or not, shall not be dismissed, nor a replevin issued given, until all such expenses and disbursements, and the costs of suit, including solicitor's fees have been paid. The grantor, for said grantor and for the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of said grantor, waive all right to the possession of, and income from, said premises pending such foreclosure proceedings, and agree, that upon the filing of any bill in foreclosure this Trust Deed, the court in which such bill is filed, may at once and without notice to the said grantor, or to any party claiming under said grantor, appoint a receiver to take possession or charge of said premises with power to collect the rents, issues and profits of the said premises.
