- 12. Upon or at any time after the filing of a complaint to forecless this mortgage the court in which such complaint is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of application for such leceiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same small be then occupied as a homestead or not, and the Mortgagees may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The Court, from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) The indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this mortgage, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to fereclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

3. No action for the enforcement of the lien of any provision hereof shall be subject to any defense which would not be good and available to the party interposing same in an action at law upon the note hereby secured.

14. The Mortgagees shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

- 15. The Mortgagors shall periodically deposit with the Mortgagees such sums as the Mortgagees may reasonably require for payment of taxes and assessments on the premises. No such deposit shall bear any interest.
- 16. If the payment of said indebtedness or any part thereof be extended or varied or if any part of the security be released, all persons now or at any time hereafter liable therefor, or interested in said premises, shall be held to assent to such extension, variation or release, and their liability and the lien and all provisions hereof shall continue in full force, the right of recourse against all such persons being expressly reserved by the Mortgagees, notwithstanding such extension, variation or release.
- 17. Morryagees shall release this mortgage and lien thereof by proper instrument upon payment and discharge of all indebtedness secured hereby and payment of a reasonable fee to Mortgagees for the execution of such release.
- 18. This moltgage and all provisions hereof, shall extend to and be binding upon Mortgagers and all persons claiming under or through Mortgagers, and the word "Mortgagers" when used herein shall include all such persons and all persons liable for the payment of the indebtedness or any part thereof, whether or not such persons shall have executed the note or this mortgage. The word "Mortgagees" when used herein shall include the successors and assigns of the Mortgagees named herein and the holder or holders, from time to time, of the note secured hereby.
- 19. Notwithstanding any provision contained herein, this mortgage and the note secured by it, may not be assigned by either Mortgagers or Mortgagees, without the express written consent of the other party.
- 20. If any term, condition or provision of this mortgage is found to be unlawful or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining terms, conditions and provisions shall remain in full force and effect.
