Excerpts from the Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6332. Surrender of Property Subject to Levy

(f) Special Rule for Banks.—Any bank (as defined in section 4081) shall surrender (subject to an attachment or execution under judicial process) any deposits (including interest thereon) in such bank only after 21 days after service of levy.

If you are a payment for the last payment date shown, which that from the amount for said days is 21 days after the date of the levy. Before you surrender the levy is marked. The last payment date shown from you was 21 days after the date of the levy.

Sec. 6343. Authority to Release Levy and Return Property

(a) Release of Levy and Notice of Release.—An officer or agent of the Secretary shall release the levy (or all, or part of, the property or rights to property levied upon and shall promptly notify the taxpayer of such release (by the Secretary) if the levy is released if—

(A) the liability for which such levy was made is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of such levy will facilitate the collection of such liability;

(C) the taxpayer has entered into an agreement under section 6159 to satisfy such liability by means of installment payments, unless such agreement provides otherwise;

(D) the Secretary has determined that such levy is creating an economic hardship due to the financial condition of the taxpayer; or

(E) the fair market value of the property exceeds such liability and release of the levy (or a part of such property) could be made without hindering the collection of such liability.

For purposes of subparagraph (C), the Secretary is not required to release such levy if such release would jeopardize the secured creditor status of the Secretary.

(2) Expedited determination of liability.—In the case of any tangible personal property essential in carrying on the trade or business of the taxpayer, the Secretary shall provide for an expedited determination under paragraph (1) if levy on such tangible personal property would prevent the taxpayer from carrying on such trade or business.

(3) Subsequent levy.—The release of levy on any property under paragraph (1) shall not prevent any subsequent levy on such property.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of this section shall apply to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the provisions of any other law.

A notice of levy was served on you and demand was made for the amount of the levy.

All property rights to property, money, goods and bank deposits of the taxpayer(s) in and above account as listed in 6333(c) of the Internal Revenue Code—Special Rule for Banks. See the back of this form for more information and the exception.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of this section shall apply to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the provisions of any other law.
