And the real estate not having been redeemed from the sale, and it appearing that the holder of the Certificate of Purchase of said real estate has complied with the laws of the State of Illinois, necessary to entitle him to a Deed of said real estate, as found and ordered by the Circuit Court of Cook County;

I, DAVID D. ORR, County Clerk of the County of Cook, Illinois, residing and having my post office address at 1524 W. Touhy Ave., Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, in consideration of the premises and by virtue of the statutes of the State of Illinois in such cases provided, grant and convey to Urban Visions, Inc.

residing and having his (her or their) residence and post office address at 820 Church St., Suite 200, Evanston, Illinois 60201, his (her or their) heirs and assigns FOREVER, the said Real Estate hereinabove described.

The following provision of the Compiled Statutes of the State of Illinois, being 35 ILCS 200/22-85, is recited, pursuant to law:

"Unless the holder of the certificate purchased at any tax sale under this Code takes out the deed in the time provided by law, and records the same within one year from and after the time for redemption expires, the certificate or deed, and the sale on which it is based, shall, after the expiration of the one year period, be absolutely void with no right to reimbursement. If the holder of the certificate is prevented from obtaining a deed by injunction or order of any court, or by the refusal or inability of any court to act upon the application for a tax deed, or by the refusal of the clerk to execute the same deed, the time he or she is so prevented shall be excluded from computation of the one year period."

Given under my hand and seal, this 18th day of May 1995.
