12. It is further expressly agreed between the parties hereto that the remedy of forfeiture herein given to the Title Holder or to the beneficiaries of said trust shall not be exclusive of any other remedy, but that the Title Holder, or the beneficiaries of said trust, shall, in case of default or breach, or for any other reason herein contained have every other remedy given by this Agreement and by law or equity, and shall have the right to maintain and prosecute any and every such remedy, contemporaneously or otherwise, with the exercise of the right of forfeiture, or any other right herein given.

15. Purchaser has examined the improvements, if any, now existing on said premises prior to and as a condition precedent to his acceptance and the execution hereof, and is satisfied with the physical condition thereof, and his taking possession thereof shall be conclusive evidence of his receipt thereof in good order and repair, except as in this Agreement otherwise specified, and agrees and admits that no representation as to condition or repair thereof and no agreement or promise to decorate, alter, repair or improve said premises either before or after the execution of this agreement has been made by Title Holder, by beneficiaries of Title Holder, or by the agent or agents of the beneficiaries, which is not specifically set forth in this Agreement.
