THE COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND PROVISIONS REFERRED TO ON PAGE 2: (CONTINUED)

Trust Deed, if any, otherwise the prematurity rate set forth therein, when paid or incurred by Trustee or Holders of the Note in connection with (a) any proceeding, including probate and bankruptcy proceedings, to which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant by reason of this Trust Deed or any indebtedness hereby secured; (b) preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after accrual of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; or (c) preparations for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced

- 8. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: First, on account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof; second, all other items which under the terms hereof constitute secured indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the Note, with interest thereon as herein provided; third, all principal and interest remaining unpaid on the Note; fourth, any overplus to Trustors, their books, legal representatives or assigns, as their rights may appear.
- 9. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this Trust Deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such any intment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Trustors at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a liverestead or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Trustors, except for the interventice of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (a) The indebterners secured hereby or, by any decree foreclosing this Trust Deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale, (b) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.
- 10. No action for the enforcement of the lien or of any provision hereof shall be subject to any defense which would not be good and available to the party interposing same in an action at law upon the how hereby secured. If Trustors voluntarily shall set or convey the premises, in whole or in part, or any interest in that premises or by some action means divest themselves of title to the premises without obtaining the written consent of the Holders of the Note or Trustee, then the Holders of the Note or Trustee shall have the option to declare the unpaid balance of the indebtedness immediately due and payable. This option shall not apply if (a) the sale of the premises is permitted because the purchaser's creditworthiness is satisfactory to the Holders of the Note and (b) that purchaser, prior to the sale, has executed a written assumption agreement containing terms prescribed by the Holders of the Note including, if required, an increase in the rate of interest payable under the Note.
