- 1. Promises of Borrower -- Borrower represents and warrants that:
  - a. Borrower owns the Proporty;
  - b. Borrower has the right to mortgage, grant, and convey the Property to Trustee; and
  - c. There are no claims or charges outstanding against the Property except any mortgages or trust deeds that are currently shown in the office where real estate records are filed for the County where the Property is located.

Borrower gives a general warranty of title to Trustee on behalf of the Holder of the Note. This means that Borrower will be fully responsible for any losses which Trustee on behalf of the Holder of the Note suffers because someone other than Borrower has some of the rights in the Property that Borrower represents and warrants to have. Borrower will defend ownership of the Property against any claims of such rights.

- 2. Encrower's Promise to Pay -- The Agreement. Borrower promises to promptly pay all amounts due on the Agreement except as explained in paragraph 9.
- 3. Borrower's Promue to Pay -- Charges and Assessments. Borrower promises to pay all present and future liens, taxes, assessments, utility bill; and other charges on the Property, including any amounts on any prior mortgage or trust deed, as they become due.
- 4. Borrower's Promise to Buy hazard Insurance. Borrower promises to obtain a hazard insurance policy payable to Trustee for the benefit of the Holds of the Note, and which covers all buildings on the Property. The insurance must be satisfactory to the Holder of the Note and must cover loss or damage caused by fire and hazards normally covered by "extended coverage" hazard insurance policies. The insurance must be in the amounts and for the periods of time required by the Holder of the Note. Borrower will lodfy the Holder of the Note promptly if there is any loss or damage to the Property. The Trustee or Holder of the Note may file a "Proof of Loss" form with the insurance company. Borrower directs the insurance company to pay all "proceeds" to Trustee for the benefit of the Holder of the Note. "Proceeds" are any money that the insurance company owes to the Borrower under the policy. Unless the Holder of the Note agrees in writing that the Proceeds can be used differently, the Proceeds will be applied to pay the amount Borrower owes the Holder of the Note.

NOTICE: Unless you provide us with evidence of the insurance coverage required by your agreement with us, we may purchase insurance at your expense to protect our interests in your collateral. This insurance may, but need not, protect your interests. The coverage that we purchase may not pay any claim that you make or any claim that is made against you in connection with the collateral. You may later cancel any insurance purchased by us, but only after providing us with evidence that you have obtained insurance as required by our agreement. If we purchase insurance for the collateral, you will be responsible for the costs of that insurance, including interest and any other charges we may impose in connection with the placement of the insurance, until the effective date of the cancellation or expiration of the insurance. The costs of the insurance may be added to your total outstanding balance or obligation. The costs of the insurance may be more than the cost of insurance you may be able to obtain on your own.

If any Proceeds are used to reduce the amount which Borrower owes the Holder of the Note under the Agreement, Borrower will still have to make the regular payments under the Agreement until the entire amount Forrower owes is paid in full.
