- The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (a) The indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the like lien or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (b) the deficiency in case of sale and deficiency.
10. No action for the enforcement of the lien or of any provision hereof shall be subject to any defense which would not be good and available to the party interposing same in an action at law upon the notes hereby secured.
11. Trustee or the holders of the notes, or of any of them, shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.
12. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence, or condition of the Premises, or to inquire into the validity of the signatures or the identity capacity, or authority of the signatories on the note or the trust deed, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this trust deed or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.
13. Trustee shall release this trust deed and the lien thereon by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this trust deed has been fully paid; and Trustee may execute and deliver a release hereof to and at the request of any person who shall either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the principal notes, representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representation Trustee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a release is requested of a successor trustee, such successor trustee may accept as the genuine notes herein described any note which bear an identification number purporting to be placed thereon by a prior trustee hereunder or which contain in substance with the description herein contained of the principal notes and which purport to be executed by the persons herein designated as the makers thereof; and where the release is requested of the original trustee and it has never placed an identification number on the principal notes described herein, it may accept as the genuine principal notes herein described any note which may be presented and which conform in substance with the description herein contained of the principal note, and which purport to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof.
14. Trustee may resign by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in which this instrument shall have been recorded or filed. Any successor to Trustee shall have the identical title, powers and authority as are herein given Trustee.
15. This Trust Deed and all provisions hereof, shall pertain to and be binding upon Mortgagors and all persons claiming under or through Mortgagors, and the word "Mortgagors" when used herein shall include all such persons and all persons liable for the payment of the indebtedness or any part thereof, whether or not such persons shall have executed the principal notes or this Trust Deed.
16. Before releasing this trust deed, Trustee or successor trustee shall receive for its services a fee as determined by its time schedule in effect when the release deed is filed. Trustee or successor trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for any other act or service performed under any provisions of this Trust Deed.
17. The provisions of the "Trust and Trustees Act" of the State of Illinois shall be applicable to this Trust Deed.

4. In case of default herein, Trustee or the holder of the notes, or of any of them, may, but need not, make any payment or perform any act hereinbefore required of Mortgagor in any form and manner deemed expedient, and may, but need not, make full or partial payment of principal or interest on prior assessments, if any, and purchase, discharge, compromise or settle any tax lien or other prior lien or title or claim thereof, or reduce from any tax sale or forfeiture affecting said premises or contest any tax or assessment. All moneys paid for any of the purposes herein authorized and all expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith, including attorneys' fees, and any other moneys advanced by Trustee or the holder of the notes, or of any of them, to protect the mortgaged premises and the lien hereof, plus reasonable compensation to Trustee for each action concerning which action herein authorized may be taken, shall be so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and shall become immediately due and payable without notice and with interest thereon at a rate set forth in the notes securing this trust deed. Action of Trustee or holder of the notes shall never be construed as a waiver of any right accruing to them on account of any default hereunder on the part of the Mortgagors. If Trustee or any note holder purchases insurance on said premises as authorized herein, it will have the right to select the agent. Trustee or the note holder is not required to obtain the lowest cost insurance that might be available.
5. The Trustee or the holders of the notes hereby secured making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes or assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate procured from the appropriate public office without injury to the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or to the validity of any tax, assessment, sale, forfeiture, tax lien or title or claim thereto.
6. Mortgagors shall pay each item of indebtedness herein mentioned, both principal and interest, when due according to the terms hereof. At the option of the holders of the principal notes, or any of them, and without notice to Mortgagors, all unpaid indebtedness secured by this Trust Deed shall, notwithstanding anything in the principal notes or in this Trust Deed to the contrary, become due and payable (a) immediately in the case of default in making payment of any of the principal notes, or (b) when default shall occur and continue for three days in the payment of any interest or in the performance of any other agreement or provision of the Mortgagors herein contained.
7. When the indebtedness hereby secured shall become due whether by acceleration or otherwise, holders of the notes, or any of them, or Trustee shall have the right to foreclose the same hereof. In any suit to foreclose the lien hereof, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the decree for sale all expenditures and expenses, which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Trustee or holders of the notes, or any of them, for attorney's fees, Trustee's fees, appraiser's fees, outlays for documentary and expert evidence, the proprietor's charges, publication costs and costs (which may be estimated as to items to be expended after entry of the decree) of procuring all such documents of title, title searches and examinations, guarantee policies, Titleins certificates, and similar acts and proceedings with respect to title as Trustee or holders of the notes, or any of them, may deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to bidders at any sale which may be had pursuant to such decree the true condition of the title to or the value of the premises. All expenditures and expenses of the nature in this paragraph mentioned shall be as to much additional indebtedness secured hereby and immediately due and payable, with interest thereon at a rate equivalent to the highest post maturity rate set forth in the notes securing this trust deed, if any, otherwise the highest pre-maturity rate set forth therein, when paid or incurred by Trustee or holders of the notes in connection with (a) any proceeding including probate and bankruptcy proceedings, to which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant; (b) a suit of this trust deed or any indebtedness hereby secured; or (b) preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after accrual of each right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; or (c) preparation for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced.
8. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: First, on account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof; second, all other items which under the terms hereof constitute secured indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the principal notes with interest thereon as herein provided; third, all principal and interest remaining unpaid on the principal notes; fourth, any amounts to Mortgagors, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns, as their rights may appear.
9. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of the Mortgagors at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homeestead or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have the power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale ~~and~~ a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management, and operation of the premises during the whole of said period.

The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (a) The indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this trust deed; or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (b) the deficiency in case of sale and deficiency.

10. No action for the enforcement of the lien or of any provision hereof shall be subject to any defense which would not be good and available to the party interpreting same in an action at law upon the notes hereby secured.

11. Trustee or the holders of the notes, or of any of them, shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

12. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence, or condition of the Premises, or to inquire into the validity of the signatures or the identity capacity, or authority of the signatories on the note or the trust deed, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this trust deed or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.

13. Trustee shall release this trust deed and the lien hereof by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this trust deed has been fully paid; and Trustee may execute and deliver a release hereof to and at the request of any person who shall either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the principal note, representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which presentation Trustee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a release is requested of a successor trustee, such successor trustee may accept an original note herein described, any note which bear an identification number purporting to be placed thereon by a prior trustee hereunder or which otherwise in substance with the description herein contained of the principal note and which purport to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof; and where the release is requested of the original trustee and it has never placed the identification number on the principal note described herein, it may accept an original principal note herein described, any note which may be presented and which conform in substance with the description herein contained of the principal note and which purport to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof.

14. Trustee may resign by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in which this instrument shall have been recorded or filed. Any successor to Trustee under shall have the identical powers and authority as are herein given Trustee.

15. This Trust Deed and all provisions hereof, shall extend to and be binding upon Mortgagors and all persons claiming under or through Mortgagors, and the word "Mortgagor" when used herein shall include all such persons and all persons liable for the payment of the indebtedness or any part thereof, whether or not such persons shall have executed the principal notes or this Trust Deed.

16. Besides releasing this trust deed, Trustee or successor trustee shall receive for its services a fee as determined by its rate schedule in effect when the release deed is issued. Trustee or successor trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for any other act or service performed under any provisions of this Trust Deed.

17. The provisions of the "Trust and Trustees Act" of ~~the State of~~ Illinois shall be applicable to this Trust Deed.
