- G. That upon the commencement of any foreclosure proceedings hereunder, the court in which the suit is filed may, at any time, either before or after sale, and without notice to the Mortgagor, or any party claiming under him, and without regard to the solvency of the Mortgagor or the then value of the Property, or whether the same shall then be occupied by the owner of the equity of redemption as a homestead, appoint a receiver with power to manage and rent and to collect the rents, issues and profits of the Property during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and the statutory period of redemption and such rents, issues and profits, when collected, may be applied before as well as after the sale, towards the payment of the indebtedness, costs, taxes, insurance or other items necessary for the protection and preservation of the Property, including the expenses of such receivership, or on any deficiency judgment whether there be a judgement therefore in personam or not, and if a receiver shall be appointed he shall remain in possession until the expiration of the full period allowed by statute for redemption, whether there be redemption or not, and until the issuance of deed in case of sale, but if no deed be issued, until the expiration of the statutory period during which it may be issued, and no lease of the Property shall be nullified by the appointment or entry in possession of a receiver but he may elect to terminate any lease junior to the lien hereof, and upon the foreclosure of the Property, there shall be allowed and included as an additional indebtedness in the judgment of sale all expenditures and expenses together with interest thereon at the rate of 12% per annum or at the rate under the Agreement, whichever is higher, which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Mortgagee for attorney's fees, Mortgagee's fees, appraiser's fees, surveys, outlays for exhibits attached to pleadings, documentary and expert evidence, stenographer's fees, court costs, publication costs and costs (which may be estimated as to and include items to be expended after the entry of the judgment, including attorney's fees) procuring all abstracts of title, title searches, title examinations and reports, title insurance policies, Torrens certificates and similar data and assurances with respect to title as Mortgagee may reasonably deem necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to bidders at any sale held pursuant to such judgment the true title to or value of the Property; all of which a cresaid amounts together with interest as here a provided shall be immediately due and payable by the Mortgagor in connection with (a) any proceeding, including probate or bankruptcy proceedings to which either party hereto shall be a party by reason of this Mortgage or the Agreement hereby secured; (b) preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure, hereof after the accrual of the right to foreclose, whether or not actually commenced; or (c) preparations for the defense of or intervention in any threatened or contemplated suit or proceeding which might affect the Property or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced. In the event of a foreclosure sale of the Property there first shall be paid out of the proceeds thereof all of the aforesaid items, then the entire indebtedness whether due and payable by the terms hereof, the interest due thereon up to the time of such sale, and the overplus, if any shall be paid to the Mortgagor, and the purchaser shall not be obliged to see to the application of the purchase money.
- H. In case the Property, or any part thereof, shall be taken by condemnation, the Mortgagee is hereby empowered to collect and receive all compensation which may be paid for any of the Property taken or for damages to any of the Property not taken and all condemnation compensation so received shall be forthwith applied by the Mortgagee as it may elect, to the immediate reduction of the indebtedness secured hereby, or to the repair and restoration of any of the Property so damaged, provided that any excess over the amount of the indebtedness shall be delivered to the Mortgagor or his assignee.

- All easements, rents, issues and profits of the Property are pledged. assigned and transferred to the Mortgagee, whether now due or hereafter to become due, under or by virtue of any lease or agreement for the use or occupancy of the Property, or any part thereof, whether said lease or agreement is written or verbal, and it is the intention hereof (a) to pledge said rents, issues and profits on a parity with the Property and not secondarily and such pledge shall not be deemed merged in any foreclesure judgment, and (b) to establish an absolute transfer and assignment to the Mortgagee of all such leases and agreements and all the avails thereunder, together with the right in case of default, either before or after foreclosure sale, to enter upon and take possession of, manage, maintain and operate the Property, or any part thereof, make leases for terms deemed advantageous to 32, terminate or modify existing or future leases, collect said avails, rents, issues and profits, regardless of when earned, and use such measures whether legal or equitable as it may deem proper to enforce collection thereof, employ renting agents or other employees, alter cr repair the Property, buy furnishings and equipment therefor when it deems necessary, purchase adequate fire and extended coverage and other forms of insurance as may be deemed advisable, and in general exercise all powers ordinarily incident to absolute ownership, advance or borrow money necessary for any purpose herein stated to secure which a lien is hereby created on the Property and on the income therefrom which lien is prior to the lien of any other indebtedness rereby secured, and out of the income retain reasonable compensation for itself, pay insurance premiums, taxes and assessments, and all expenses of every kind including attorney's fees incurred in the exercise of the powers herein given, and from time to time apply any balance of income not, in its sole discretion, needed for the aforesaid purposes, first on the interest and then on the principal of the indebtedness hereby secured, before or after any judgment of foreclosure, and on the deficiency in the proceeds of sale, if any, whether there be a judgment in personam therefor or not. Whenever all of the indebtedness secured hereby is paid, and the Mortgagee, in its sole discretion, feels that there is no substantial uncorrected default in performance of the Mortgagor's agreements herein, the Mortgagee, on satisfactory evidence thereof, shall relinquish possession and pay to Mortgagor any surplus income in its hands. The possession of Mortgagee may continue until all indebtedness secured hereby is paid in full or until the delivery of a deed of the continue of the contin Mortgagor's agreements herein, the Mortgagee, on satisfactory evidence pursuant to a judgment foreclosing the lien hereof, but if no decabe issued, then until the expiration of the statutory period during which it may be issued. Mortgagee shall, however, have the discretionary power at any time to refuse to take or to abandon possession of the Property without affecting the lien hereof. Mortgagee shall have all powers, if any, which it might have had without this paragraph. No suit shall be sustainable against Mortgagee based upon acts or omissions relating to the subject matter of this paragraph unless commenced within sixty days after Mortgagee's possession ceases.
- That each right, power and remedy conferred by this Mortgage or the J. Agreement upon the Mortgagee is cumulative of every other right or remedy of the Mortgagee, whether herein or by law conferred, and may be enforced concurrently therewith, that no waiver by the Mortgagee of performance of any covenant contained herein or in the Agreement shall thereafter in any manner affect the right of Mortgagee to require or enforce performance of the same or any other of said covenants; that wherever the context herecf requires, the masculine gender, as used herein, shall include the femiline
