TO HAVE AND TO HOLD this real estate and appurtenances thereto upon the trusts set forth in the JOSEPH AND ROSE PELECH TRUST dated May 13, 1999 for the following uses:

1. The Trustee (or Trustees, as the case may be), is invested with following powers: (a) to manage, improve, divide or subdivide the trust property, or any part thereof; (b) to sell on any terms, grant options to purchase, contract to sell, to convey with or without consideration, to convey to a successor or successors in trust, any or all of the title and estate of the trust, and to grant to such successor or successors in trust all the powers vested in the Trustee; (c) to mortgage, encumber or otherwise transfer the trust property, or any interest therein, as security for advances or loans; (d) to dedicate parks, street, highways or alleys, and to vacate any portion of the premises; (e) to lease and enter into leases for the whole or part of the premises, from time to time, but any such leasehold or renewal shall not exceed a single term of 199 years, and to renew, extend or modify any existing lease.

2. Any party dealing with the Trustee with regard to the trust property, whether by contract, sale, mortgage, lease or otherwise, shall not be required to see the application of the purchase money, loan proceeds, rental or other consideration given, nor shall be required to see that the terms of the trust have been complied with, or to enquire into the powers and authority of the Trustee, and the execution of every contract, option, deal, mortgage or other instrument dealing with the trust property, shall be conclusive evidence in favor of every person relying upon or claiming under such conveyance or other instrument; that at the time of the execution and delivery of any of the aforesaid instruments, the Trust Agreement above described was in full force and effect; that said instrument so executed was pursuant to and in accordance with the authority granted the Trustee, and is binding upon the beneficiary or beneficiaries under said Trust Agreement; and if said instrument is executed by a successor or successors in trust, that he or they were duly appointed and are fully invested with the title, estate, rights, powers and duties of the preceding Trustee.

3. The interest of each and every beneficiary under said Trust Agreement and hereunder, and of all persons claiming under any of the beneficiaries, shall be only in the earnings, avails and proceeds arising from the sale of other disposition of the trust property, and such interest is hereby declared to be personal property only, and the beneficiary or beneficiaries of the trust shall not have any title interest therein, legal or equitable, except as stated.

4. If the Trustee dies, resigns, refuses or is unable to act, then Kenneth R. Pelech is then appointed as Successor Trustee herein with all powers and authority that were vested in the original named Trustee(s). If Kenneth R. Pelech is unable or unwilling to act as successor trustee James R. Pelech is then appointed.

All the covenants, conditions, powers, rights and duties vested hereby, in the respective parties, shall inure to and be binding upon their heirs, legal representatives and assigns.

If the title to any of the above real estate now is or hereafter shall be registered, the Registrar of Titles is directed not to register or note in the Certificate of Title, duplicate thereof, or memorial the words "in trust" or "upon condition", or "with limitation", or words of similar import, in compliance with the statute of the State of Illinois in such case made and provided.

The Grantor hereby waives and releases any and all right and benefit under and by virtue of the Statutes of the State of Illinois providing for the exemption of homestead from sale or execution or otherwise.

DATED this May 24, 1999.

Signatures of Joseph R. Pelech and Rose T. Pelech with printed names and "(SEAL)" labels.

I, the undersigned, a Notary Public in and for Cook County, Illinois, do hereby certify that the above personally known to me to be the same whose name is subscribed to the foregoing instrument, appeared before me this day in person, and acknowledged signing, sealing and delivering said instrument freely and voluntarily act, for the uses and purposes therein set forth, including the release and waiver of the right of homestead.

Given under my hand and official seal, this May 24, 1999.

Commission expires 6/4/01 and signature of Julie L. Stull, Notary Public.
