Any application of the proceeds to the principal shall not extend or postpone the due date of the monthly payments, which are referred to in paragraph 2, or change the amount of such payments. This assignment of rents constitutes an absolute assignment and not an assignment for additional security only.

If Lender gives notice of breach to Borrower: (a) all rents received by Borrower shall be held by Borrower as trustee for benefit of Lender only, to be applied to the sums secured by the Security Instrument; (b) Lender shall be entitled to collect and receive all of the rents of the Property; and (c) each tenant of the Property shall pay all rents due and unpaid to Lender or Lender's agent on Lender's written demand to the tenant.

Lender shall not be required to enter upon, take control of or maintain the Property before or after giving notice of breach to Borrower. However, Lender or a judicially appointed receiver may do so at any time there is a breach. To Our Borrowers:

The accumulation of funds for payment of property taxes and insurance has typically been accomplished by establishing an escrow account. Accordingly, funds are accumulated as part of your regular payment.

As an option to this escrow account, you may pledge an interest bearing time deposit. The terms and conditions of this option, and other notices are provided below.

MORTGAGE ESCROW ACCOUNT ACT

Sec. 2. As used in this Act, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Escrow Account" means any account established by the mortgage lender in conjunction with a mortgage loan on a residence, into which the borrower is required to make regular periodic payments and out of which the lender pays the taxes on the property covered by the mortgage.

(b) "Borrower" means the person obligated under the mortgage loan.

(c) "Mortgage Lender" means any bank, savings and loan association, building and loan association or other institution, association, partnership, corporation or person who extends the loan of monies for the purpose of enabling another to purchase a residence.

(d) "Escrow-like Arrangement" means any arrangement the intent of which is to serve the same purposes as an escrow account but which does not require the formal establishment of an account.

Sec. 3. Escrow accounts or escrow-like arrangements established after the effective date of this Act in conjunction with mortgage agreements for single-family owner occupied residential property are hereby declared separate and distinct transactions from mortgages and, hence, subject to the laws and regulations of this State.

Sec. 4. On or after the effective date of this Act, each mortgage lender in conjunction with the granting of a mortgage on a single-family owner occupied residential property, shall comply with the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 5. When the mortgage is reduced to 65% of its original amount by payments of the borrower, timely made according to the provisions of the loan agreement secured by the mortgage, and the borrower is otherwise not in default on the loan agreement, the mortgage lender must notify the borrower that he may terminate such escrow account or that he may elect to continue it until he requests a termination thereof, or until the mortgage is paid in full, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 6. In lieu of the mortgage lender establishing an escrow account or an escrow-like arrangement, a borrower may pledge an interest bearing time deposit with the mortgage lender in an amount sufficient to secure the payment of anticipated taxes.

Sec. 7. The borrower shall not have the right to terminate any such arrangement under Section 5 in conjunction with mortgages insured, guaranteed, supplemented, or assisted by the State of Illinois or the federal government that require an escrow arrangement for their continuation.

Sec. 8. If after terminating an escrow arrangement under the conditions of this Act, the borrower does not furnish to the lender sufficient evidence of payment of the taxes when due on the residence covered by the mortgage with respect to which the escrow arrangement was established, the lender, after taking reasonably good faith steps to verify nonpayment, may, within thirty days after such payment is due, establish or reestablish an escrow arrangement notwithstanding the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 9. Failure of any mortgage lender operating within this State to comply with the provisions of this Act shall entitle the borrower to actual damages in a court action.

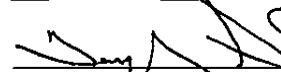

Sec. 10. The provisions of this Act shall not be applicable to a mortgage lender using the capitalization method of accounting for receipt of payments for taxes. The capitalization method shall mean crediting such tax payments directly to the loan principal upon receipt and increasing the loan balance when the taxes are paid.

Sec. 11. Notice of the requirements of the Act shall be furnished in writing to the Borrower at the date of closing.

Sec. 12. This Act takes effect on January 1, 1976.
