All moneys paid for any of these purposes herein authorized and all expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith, including attorneys' fees, and any other moneys advanced by Mortgagee or the holders of the contract to protect the mortgaged premises and the lien hereof, shall be so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and shall become immediately due and payable without notice, inaction of Mortgagee or holders of the contract shall never be considered as a waiver of any right accruing to them on account of any default hereunder on the part of the Mortgagees.

5. The Mortgagee or the holder of the contract hereby secured making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes and assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate procured from the appropriate public office without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax, assessment, sale, foreclosure, tax lien or title or claim thereon.

6. Mortgagees shall pay each item of indebtedness herein mentioned, when due according to the terms hereof. At the option of the holder of the contract, and without notice to the Mortgagees, all unpaid indebtedness secured by the Mortgagee shall, notwithstanding anything in the contract or in this Mortgagee to the contrary, become due and payable (a) immediately in the case of default in making payment of any installment on the contract, or (b) when default shall occur and continue for three days in the performance of any other agreement of the Mortgagees herein contained.

7. When the indebtedness hereby secured shall become due whether by acceleration or otherwise, Mortgagee shall have the right to foreclose the lien hereof. In any suit to foreclose the lien hereof, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the decree for sale all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Mortgagee or holder of the contract for attorneys' fees, appraiser's fees, outlays for documentary and expert evidence, stenographers' charges, publication costs and costs which may be estimated as to items to be expended after entry of the decree of procuring all such abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, guarantee policies, Torrens certificates and similar data and assurances with respect to title as Mortgagee or holder of the contract may deem to be reasonably necessary, either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to bidders at any sale which may be had pursuant to such decree of the title to or of the value of the premises. All expenditures and expenses of the nature in this paragraph mentioned shall become so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and immediately due and payable, when paid or incurred by Mortgagee or holder of the contract in connection with (a) any proceeding, including probate and bankruptcy proceedings, or which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant, by reason of this Mortgagee or any indebtedness hereby secured; or (b) preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after accrual of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; or (c) preparations for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof whether or not actually commenced.

8. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed as follows: first, on account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof; second, all other items which under the terms hereof constitute secured indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the contract; third, all other indebtedness, if any, remaining unpaid on the contract; fourth, any overplus to Mortgagees, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns as their right may appear.

9. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this mortgage the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagees at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Mortgagee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of any further times when Mortgagees, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) The indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this Mortgagee or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale at a deficiency.

10. No action for the enforcement of the lien or any provision hereof shall be subject to any defense which would not be good and available to the party interposing same in an action at law upon the contract hereby secured.

11. Mortgagee or the holder of the contract shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

12. If Mortgagees shall sell, assign or transfer any right, title or interest in said premises, or any portion thereof, without the written consent of the holder of the contract secured hereby, holder shall have the right, at holder's option, to declare all unpaid indebtedness secured by this mortgage to be immediately due and payable, anything in said contract to the contrary notwithstanding.
