MARITAL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT was made August 16, 1978, at Chicago, Illinois, by and between CYNTHIA DE LA PENA (hereinafter referred to as "CYNTHIA" or the "Wife" or the "Mother") residing at Chicago, Illinois, and JAMES R. DE LA PENA (hereinafter referred to as "JAMES" or the "Husband" or the "Father"), residing in Calumet City, Illinois.

1. The parties were lawfully married at Chicago, Illinois, on December 29, 1974.

2. Irreconcilable difficulties and differences have arisen between the parties, as a result of which they separated in May 15, 1978, and they now live separate and apart from each other.

3. Two (2) children were born to the parties as the issue of the marriage (namely):

ERIKA, born December 1, 1974

JAMES, born March 13, 1977

The parties seek to lodge that both are fit and proper persons to have the care and custody of the minor children.

4. The Wife has filed, against the Husband, a petition for dissolution of marriage in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, County Department, Divorce Division, under docket number 78 D 386. The case is entitled IN RE THE MARRIAGE OF CYNTHIA DE LA PENA, PETITIONER and JAMES R. DE LA PENA, RESPONDENT, and that case remains pending and undetermined.

5. The parties hereto consider it to their best interests to settle between themselves the question of maintenance for the parties, the questions of the custody, support, maintenance, medical and related needs and the education of the children of the parties, and to fully settle rights of property of the parties, and rights flowing out of the marital relationship.

other relationships now or previously existing between them and to settle any and all rights of every kind, nature and description which either of them now has or may hereafter have or claim to have against the other, or in or to any property of the other, whether real or personal now owned or which may hereafter be acquired by either of them, or any rights or claims in and to the estate of the other.

6. The wife has employed and had the benefit of counsel of CHARLES E. L. NEALE as her attorney. Her husband has employed and had the benefit of counsel of EPTON & DRUTE, LTD., by RUDITH L. LA DESMAI, as his attorney. Each party has had the benefit of advice, investigation and recommendations with reference to the subject matter of this agreement. The parties acknowledge that each has been fully informed of the wealth, property, estate and income of the other. Each party also acknowledges that he or she is conversant with all the wealth, property, estate and income of the other and that each has been fully informed of his or her respective rights in the premises.

7. That all of the preamble clauses herein set forth in this agreement are incorporated by reference and are to be considered as part of this agreement, and both of the parties are entering into the same with full knowledge of the foregoing facts and agree to the truth and correctness thereof.

8. That the parties hereto shall enter into written stipulation to have the aforementioned dissolution of marriage matter heard upon wife's petition for dissolution of marriage and husband's response thereto as an uncontested matter in the nature of a default.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual and several promises and undertakings herein contained and for other good and valuable considerations the receipt and sufficiency of which

35207222

It is hereby acknowledged, the parties do hereby freely and voluntarily agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Right of Action

- 1. This agreement is not one to obtain or stimulate dissolution of marriage.
- 2. CYNTHIA reserves the right to prosecute any action for dissolution of marriage which she has brought or may hereafter bring and defend any action which may be commenced by JAMES. JAMES reserves the right to prosecute any action for dissolution of marriage which he may hereafter bring and defend any action which has been or may be commenced by CYNTHIA.

ARTICLE II

Custody, Visitation and Support of Minor Children

- 1. CYNTHIA shall have the sole care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties, to-wit:
 - ERIKA, born December 3, 1974
 - JAMES, born March 11, 197
- 2. JAMES shall have rights of reasonable visitation with said children at the children's place of residence but the visitation shall take place outside of the home occupied by CYNTHIA if JAMES so desires, or if CYNTHIA so desires.
- 3. The parties, by written agreement, shall have the right to alter, modify and otherwise arrange for other specific visitation periods than those shown above, and on such terms and conditions as are conducive to the best interests and welfare of said children.
- 4. JAMES agrees to pay CYNTHIA as and for the support and maintenance of the children of the parties the sum $40.00 per week per child.
- 5. That said child support award is based upon the following financial presentations made by the parties:

(a) JAMES represents that his gross income for 1977 was $25,200.00, and that his anticipated net income for 1978 is estimated at $9,200.00.

(b) CYNTHIA represents that her gross income for 1977 was $420.00, and that she is presently employed part-time and earning a net income of $50.00 to $75.00 per week.

6. JAMES'S obligation for the support and maintenance of each child shall continue until the first to happen of any of the following events:

- (a) The marriage of said child.
- (b) The child attaining the age of 18 years.
- (c) Full emancipation, but excluding as a measure thereof, part-time or summer-time employment.
- (d) JAMES'S death.

7. So long as JAMES shall make the payments required hereunder for child support, he alone shall have the right to claim the children for whom he is making such payments as his dependents for federal and state income tax purposes.

8. The fact that JAMES may derive income in an amount in excess of $25,200.00 shall not be deemed to constitute grounds for CYNTHIA to apply to any court for an increase in the amount of child support payments until his gross income shall exceed $30,200.00.

The fact that CYNTHIA may become employed full-time or even more on a part-time basis shall not be deemed to constitute grounds for JAMES to apply to any court for a reduction in the amount of child support payments until her gross income shall exceed $5,420.00.

ARTICLE III

Emancipation Event

With respect to child, an "emancipation event" shall mean any of the following to have occurred upon the earliest to happen of any of the following, at which time JAMES'S obligations for the child as detailed in this agreement shall terminate:

- 1. The child's reaching 18 years of age.
- 2. The child's marriage;
- 3. The child having a permanent residence away from the permanent residence of the Wife. A residence at boarding school or camp is not to be deemed a residence away from the permanent residence of the Wife;
- 4. The child's death;
- 5. Entry into the armed forces of the United States, but the emancipation event shall be deemed terminated and nullified upon discharge from such armed forces and thereafter, as if such emancipation event by reason of that entry had not occurred;
- 6. The child's engaging in full-time employment except that the child's engaging in full-time employment during vacation or summer periods shall not be deemed an emancipation event.

ARTICLE IV

Maintenance

- 1. JAMES shall pay to CYNTHIA as and for maintenance the sum of $20.00 per week.
- 2. The maintenance award is based upon JAMES'S representation that his gross income for 1977 was $25,200.00, and CYNTHIA'S representation that her gross income for 1977 was $420.00 and that she is presently employed only part-time and receiving a net income of $50.00 to $75.00 per week.

3. (a) The payments to CYNTHIA shall continue until the first to happen of the following:

1. The death of either party;
2. CYNTHIA'S remarriage;
3. CYNTHIA'S cohabiting with another person on a continuing conjugal basis.

(b) The fact that JAMES may derive income in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 shall not be deemed to constitute grounds for CYNTHIA to apply to any court for an increase in the amount of maintenance until his gross income shall exceed $20,000.00.

The fact that CYNTHIA may become employed full-time or seasonally on a part-time basis shall not be deemed to constitute grounds for JAMES to apply to any court for a reduction or termination of maintenance until her gross income shall exceed $420.00.

4. All of the payments to be made by JAMES to CYNTHIA pursuant to this article IV will be payments in discharge of a legal obligation which, because of the marital or family relationship, is imposed on or incurred by JAMES under a written instrument incident to a divorce or a dissolution of marriage, all within the meaning and intent of Section 71(c) of the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as now in effect, and of similar provisions of future laws, and that such payments will be includible in CYNTHIA'S gross income pursuant to Section 71(c) and will be deductible by JAMES pursuant to Sections 71(a) and 215 in determining their respective taxable incomes. In the event that all or any part of such payments for any year are not so includible by CYNTHIA and so deductible by JAMES in the determination of their respective taxable incomes, such shall be interpreted or application of the present law.

routine checkups, minor ailments, drug supplies (except if required in the treatment of serious illness), dental prophylaxis and the like. In the event of serious illness of ERIKA or JAIME, or the need for hospital, surgical, optical or orthodontic or extraordinary medical or dental care, CYNTHIA shall consult JAMES before incurring expenses in any of those connections. It is understood by both parties that CYNTHIA'S obligation to consult with JAMES shall not apply in cases of grave emergency where ERIKA'S life or JAIME'S life might be imperiled by delay. If the parties cannot agree as to whether the expense is extraordinary, a circuit court shall do so upon proper notice and petition, even after said expense is incurred.

2. JAMES' obligation with respect to ERIKA and JAIME shall terminate upon the occurrence of any of the following:

- a. The child attaining the age of 18 years;
- b. The child's marriage;
- c. The child's death.

3. JAMES, at his sole expense, shall obtain and maintain in full force and effect while he has an obligation of support for ERIKA or JAIME, a major medical insurance policy, covering possible major medical needs of ERIKA and JAIME. CYNTHIA shall obtain and deposit with JAMES a copy of that policy and any subsequent amendments affecting the extent of coverage thereunder, and shall provide CYNTHIA with a duplicate medical insurance identification card.
