made to members of an owner's family, shall not operate to accelerate the debt, but in the event of such changes this clause shall apply to the grantee or assignee as if he were the First Party. This provision is inapplicable to leases for three years or less that contain no option to renew or purchase or any pre-emption right. A consent once given under this paragraph does not exhaust this paragraph. Like consents will be needed on future transactions.

9. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this mortgage, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency at the time of application for such receiver, of the person or persons, if any, liable for the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Mortgagee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when First Party, its successors or assigns, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. First Party will monthly pay to Mortgagee, in addition to the principal and interest payments required in said note, and in addition to other amounts herein provided, a sum equal to one-twelfth (1/12) of the annual premiums for insurance carried on the mortgaged property or otherwise required to be carried thereon, together with one-twelfth (1/12) of the annual taxes and assessments on the mortgaged property, all as shall be estimated by Mortgagee, and also (if this is a leasehold mortgaged) one-twelfth (1/12) of the annual rents and other payments required in said note.
