(5) That upon the commencement of any foreclosure proceeding hereunder, the court in which such suit is filed may at any time, either before or after sale, and without notice to the Mortgagors or any party claiming under them, and without regard to the then value of said premises or whether the same shall then be occupied by the owners of the equity of redemption, appoint a receiver with power to manage, rent and collect the rents, issues and profits, of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and the statutory period of redemption, and such rents, issues and profits, when collected, either before or after any foreclosure sale, may be applied toward the payment of the indebtedness or any deficiency decree, costs, taxes, insurance, or other items necessary for the protection and preservation of the property, including the expenses of such receivership; and upon foreclosure and sale of said premises, there shall first be paid out of the proceeds of such a sale, a reasonable sum for plaintiff's attorney's fees and also all expenses of advertising, selling, and conveying said premises, and all sums advanced for court costs, any taxes or other liens or assessments, outlays for documentary evidence, stenographer's charges, all title cost, sheriff's fees and cost of procuring or completing an abstract of title, guarantee policy, or Torrens Certificate showing the whole title to said premises, and including the foreclosure decree and Certificate of Sale; there shall next be paid the indebtedness secured hereby whether due and payable by the terms hereof or not, and the overplus, if any, shall be returned to the Mortgagors. It shall not be the duty of the purchaser to see to the application of the purchase money. In case of payment of said indebtedness after the preparation or filing of any suit, and prior to the entry of any judgment or decree, a reasonable sum for legal services rendered to the time of such payment shall be allowed, which together with any sum paid for continuation of evidence of title, court costs, and stenographer's charges, and expenses of such proceeding, shall be additional indebtedness hereby secured.

(6) That each right, power and remedy herein conferred upon the Mortgagee is cumulative with every other right or remedy of the Mortgagee, whether herein or by law conferred, and may be enforced concurrently therewith; that no waiver by the Mortgagee of performance of any covenant herein or in said obligation contained shall thereafter in any manner affect the right of Mortgagee to require or enforce performance of the same or any other of said covenants; that wherever the context hereof requires, the masculine gender, as used herein, shall include the feminine, and the plural number, as used herein, shall include the singular; that all rights and obligations under this mortgage shall extend to and be binding on the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors, grantees and assigns of the Mortgagors and the Mortgagee.

(7) If all or any part of the Property or an interest therein is sold or transferred by Borrower without Lender's prior written consent, Lender may, at Lender's option, declare all the sums secured by this Mortgage to be immediately due and payable. If Lender exercises such option to accelerate, Lender shall mail to Borrower notice of acceleration. Such notice shall provide a period of not less than 30 days from date the notice is mailed which Borrower may pay the sums declared due. If Borrower fails to pay such sums prior to the expiration of such period, Lender may, without further notice or demand on Borrower, foreclose on this Mortgage by judicial proceeding. Lender shall be entitled to collect in such proceeding all expenses of foreclosure, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of documentary evidence, abstracts and title reports.

(8) As additional security hereunder, Borrower hereby assigns to Lender the rents of the Property. Such assignment to be exercised at Lender's option in event of default or abandonment of the Property, and at any time prior to the expiration of any period of redemption following judicial sale, Lender, in person, by agent or by judicially appointed receiver, shall be entitled to enter upon, take possession of and manage the Property and to collect the rents of the Property including those past due. All rents collected by Lender or the receiver shall be applied first to payment of costs of management of the Property and collection of rents, including, but not limited to, receiver's fees, premiums on receiver's bonds and reasonable attorney's fees, and then to the sums secured by this Mortgage. Lender and receiver shall be liable to account only for those rents actually received.
