In the event of a foreclosure sale of said premises there shall first be paid out of the proceeds thereof all of the aforesaid items, then the entire indebtedness whether due and payable by the terms hereof or not and the interest due thereon up to the time of such sale, and the overplus, if any, shall be paid to the Mortgagor, and the purchaser shall not be obliged to see to the application of the purchase money.

(6) That each right, power and remedy herein conferred upon the Mortgagee is cumulative of every other right or remedy of the Mortgagee, whether herein or by law conferred, and may be enforced concurrently therewith; that no waiver by the Mortgagee of performance of any covenant herein or in said obligation contained shall thereafter in any manner affect the right of the Mortgagee to require or to enforce performance of the same or any other of said covenants; that wherever the context hereof requires, the masculine gender, as used herein, shall include the feminine, and the singular number, as used herein, shall include the plural; that all rights and obligations under this mortgage shall extend to and be binding upon the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the Mortgagor and the successors and assigns of the Mortgagee; and that the powers herein mentioned may be exercised as often as occasion therefor arises.

(8) If the Mortgagor sells the property or any part thereof, or any interest therein either by Articles of Agreement for Deed, transfer of title, or assignment of the beneficial interest in the land trust or any part thereof, then the Mortgagee may declare the entire indebtedness secured by this Mortgage due and payable immediately, and the acceptance of payments upon said indebtedness shall not constitute a waiver of the right to demand immediate repayment.
