The party who gives notice of public sale shall also give notice to all parties in the action who have appeared and have not heretofore been found by the court to be in default for failure to plead. Such notice shall be given in the manner provided in the applicable rules of court for service of papers other than process and complaint, not more than 28 days nor less than 7 days prior to the date of sale. After notice is given as required in this section, a copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the clerk of this court together with a certificate of counsel or other proof that

3. The notice of the sale shall be published at least three consecutive calendar weeks, once in each week, the first such notice to be published not more than 35 days prior to the sale, the last such notice to be published not less than 7 days prior to the sale; by: a) advertisements in a newspaper circulated to the general public in the county in which the real estate is located, in the section of that newspaper where legal notices are commonly placed and (b) separate advertisements in the section of such newspaper, which may be the same newspaper, in which real estate other than real estate being sold as part of a legal proceeding is commonly advertised to the general public; provided that the separate legal descriptions in the real estate section need not include a legal description and that where both advertisements could be published in the same newspaper and that the newspaper does not have separate legal notices and real estate advertisement sections, a single advertisement with the legal description shall be sufficient; and (c) no other publication shall be required.

- the following information, but an immaterial error in the information shall not invalidate the legal effect of the notice:
- (a) the name, address and telephone number of the person to contact for information regarding the real estate;
  - (b) the common address and other common description (other than legal description), if any, of the real estate;
  - (c) a legal description of the real estate sufficient to identify it with reasonable certainty;
  - (d) a description of the improvements on the real estate;
  - (e) the time specified in the judgment, if any, when the real estate may be inspected prior to sale;
  - (f) the time and place of the sale;
  - (g) the terms of the sale;
  - (h) the case title, case number and the court in which the foreclosure was filed;
  - (i) no other information is required.

U.S. 7th Cir. 1984

(c) Satisfaction of claims in the order of priority adjudicated in this judgment of foreclosure or order

(b) the reasonable expenses of securing possession before holding, maintaining, and preparing the real estate for sale, including payment of taxes and other governmental charges, premiums on hazard and liability insurance, receiver's and management fees, and, to the extent provided for in the mortgage and by statute, other expenses of any nature incurred by the mortgagee;

(a) the reasonable expenses of sale;

PROCEEDS OF SALE: That proceeds of sale shall be distributed in the following order of priority:

7. TERMS OF SALE: The officer conducting the sales shall offer for sale the real estate described herein above, with all improvements, fixtures and appurtenances thereto, or so much of said real estate which may be divisible and sold separately without material injury to the parties in interest. The real estate shall be sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash; requiring payment not less than ten percent (10%) at the time of sale and the balance within twenty-four (24) hours plus interest at the statutory judgment rate on any unpaid portion of the sale price from the date of sale to the date of payment. All payments of the amount bid shall be in cash or certified funds payable to the officer conducting the sale. In the event the bidder fails to comply with the terms of the purchase as required, then upon demand by the Plaintiff in a notice served on the Officer conducting the sale and the bidder, the funds submitted shall be forfeited to the Plaintiff or the Plaintiff has the option to have the property sold to the next highest bidder. In the event there is a third party bidder other than the Plaintiff, the Officer conducting the sale shall obtain the name, address (other than a post office box), and telephone number of the bidder. Notice by regular mail to the address given by the bidder and to the Officer conducting the sale shall be deemed to be sufficient notification by the Plaintiff to exercise its option to forfeit the funds. The subject property is offered for sale without any representation as to quality or quantity of title or without recourse to the Plaintiff.

6. The person named in the notice of sale to be contacted for information about the real estate may, but shall not be required, to provide additional information other than that set forth in the notice of sale.

5. That notice of the sale may be given prior to the expiration of any reinstatement period or redemption period.

notice has been served in compliance with this section.

(c) Determine the priority of the judgments of parties who deferred proving the priority pursuant to subsection (h) of Section 15-1506, but the court shall not defer confirming the sale pending the determination of such priority.

(b) Provide for a personal judgment against those deemed personally liable therein.

(a) Approve the mortgagee's fees, costs and additional advances arising between the entry of the judgment of foreclosure and the confirmation hearing.

The officer conducting the sale shall promptly make a report of sale to the court. Upon motion and notice in accordance with court rules applicable to motions generally, the court shall conduct a hearing to confirm the sale. The order shall include an award for possession which shall become effective thirty (30) days after entry of the order. The confirmation order may also:

13.

Any bid at sale shall be deemed to include without the necessity of a court order, interest at the statutory judgment rate on any unpaid portion of the sale price from the date of sale to the date of payment.

12.

Upon and at the sale of mortgaged real estate, the officer conducting the sale shall give to the purchaser a receipt of sale. The receipt shall describe the real estate purchased and shall show the amount paid or to be paid therefor. An additional receipt shall be given at the time of each subsequent payment.

11.

If plaintiff is the successful bidder at said sale, the amount due the plaintiff, plus all costs, advances and fees hereunder with interest incurred between entry of judgment and confirmation of sale shall be taken as a credit on its bid.

10.

If the remainder of the proceeds shall not be sufficient to pay the above described amounts and interest, the amount of the deficiency shall be specified in the report of sale. The plaintiff shall be entitled to a judgment in Rem or in Personam for the amount of such deficiency and a Memorandum of Judgment shall issue to the plaintiffs with the same lien priority as to the underlying mortgage herein foreclosed, without any rights of homestead.

9.

(d) Remittance of any surplus to the mortgagor or as otherwise directed by the court.

- order to be issued a certificate of sale in recordable form describing the real estate purchased and the amount paid therefor. The certificate shall be freely assignable.
15. That upon judicial sale of "residential" real estate to the mortgagee who is a party to this foreclosure or its nominee for a sale price less than the amount required to redeem as specified in Chapter 110, Section 15-1603(d) of the Code of Civil Procedure, an owner of redemption as specified in Chapter 110, Section 15-1603(a) of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure shall have a special right to redeem for a period ending 30 days after the date the sale is confirmed. Redemption shall be made by paying the amount required by and in conformity with the procedures specified in Chapter 110, Section 15-1604 Illinois Code of Civil Procedure. Property so redeemed shall be subject to a lien for any deficiency remaining with the same lien priority as the underlying mortgage herein foreclosed, without any rights of Homestead.
16. After (1) the expiration of all the mortgagor's reinstatement and redemption rights and rights to possession; (2) confirmation of the sale; and (3) payment of the purchase price and any other amount required to be paid by the purchaser at sale, the court (or if the court shall so order, the person who conducted the sale or such person's successor or some persons specifically appointed by the court for that purpose), shall upon the request of the holder of the certificate of sale (or the purchaser if no certificate of sale was issued), promptly execute a deed to the holder or purchaser sufficient to convey title.
17. In the event the subject real estate is registered with the Registrar of Torrens Titles of Cook County, Illinois, it is further ordered that the Registrar of Torrens is hereby directed to cancel the outstanding certificate of title and issue a new certificate without requiring the surrender of the Mortgagor's Duplicate Certificate of Title.
18. That the court retains jurisdiction of the subject matter of this cause and of all parties hereto, for the purpose of enforcing this judgment.
19. There is no just reason to delay in the enforcement of appeal from this final judgment order.
