4. Possession of the premises shall be delivered to Purchaser at closing, unless otherwise agreed in writing. Real estate taxes, insurance premiums, rents, if any, and other similar items are to be adjusted pro rata as of the date of possession. Purchaser shall receive a credit at closing for current general taxes not yet paid based on the most recent ascertainable taxes and Seller shall receive a like credit as a reserve for the payment of taxes. Said reserve shall be increased by all tax payments made by Purchaser and decreased by taxes actually paid, the balance in the reserve to be credited to the Purchaser at the time of final payment. If the property has not been previously taxed as improved, when the exact amount of the taxes prorated under this agreement can be ascertained, the taxes may be repossessed by either party and the amount thus computed as due shall be promptly paid by the appropriate party. Real estate commission, if any, shall be paid at closing.

5. Purchaser shall keep the buildings and improvements on the premises in good repair and shall neither permit nor commit any waste on or to the premises, and shall also comply with additional such requirements imposed by the existing mortgage of record, if any, and if Purchaser fails to maintain or to make any such repairs or permits or commits waste Seller may elect to make same or to eliminate such waste and pay the cost thereof, which shall then immediately be due from Purchaser. The possessory rights of the Purchaser are subject to reasonable inspection by Seller to confirm compliance with the requirements of this provision.

6. Seller shall not release nor add to the principal of the loan of record, and neither party shall suffer or permit any mechanic's, lender's or other lien to attach to or be against the premises or against either Seller's or Purchaser's interest therein and any such lien shall be null and void and of no force or effect.

7. Every contract for repairs and improvements on the premises, shall contain an express, full and complete waiver and release of any and all liens or claims or right of action against the premises or either party's interest therein, and no contract or agreement, oral or written shall be made by the Purchaser for repairs or improvements upon the premises, unless it shall contain such express waiver or release of lien upon the part of the party contracting, and a signed copy of every such contract and specifications for such repairs and improvements shall be promptly delivered to and may be retained by Seller. The foregoing requirements shall not apply to painting, decorating and miscellaneous repairs costing less than Five Hundred dollars or which are paid for by Purchaser in cash. Purchaser shall not make any structural changes or alterations without the prior written consent of the Seller.

8. Neither party shall transfer or assign this agreement or any interest therein without the previous written consent of the other, and any such assignment or transfer, without such previous written consent, shall not vest in the transferee or assignee any right, title or interest herein or hereunder or in the premises, provided however that Purchaser may agree to sell the subject property if the entire balance due Seller is to be promptly paid from the proceeds following showing of good title and loan approval, and Seller agrees to cooperate in such transfer. Purchaser will not lease the premises, nor any part thereof, for any purpose, without Seller's prior written consent.

9.(a). No right, title or interest, legal or equitable, in the premises or any part thereof, shall vest in Purchaser until the delivery of the deed aforesaid by Seller. It is not the intention of the parties hereto that the Seller be divested of any right, title or interest, legal or equitable, prior to delivery of deed, nor that the security of the lender of record be in any way diminished, so that lender of record could, under a provision in the Seller's mortgage document, if any, or otherwise, declare a default, or accelerate the principal balance of the loan, or increase the interest rate, or impose any other additional fees or charges. Nevertheless, any and all legal and equitable rights which would otherwise accrue by law to contract purchasers and contract

9 (b). If the lender of record attempts to declare a default, or to accelerate the principal balance, or to increase the interest rate or impose some other additional fee or charge based on an alleged transfer of interest of the Seller notwithstanding the foregoing Paragraph 9(a), either party may at their own cost and expense lawfully resist same, or by agreement do so expeditively, however if said attempt is required to be by both parties or upheld by a final order of a court of competent jurisdiction, Purchaser shall be responsible for obtaining necessary funding.

10. No extension, change, modification or amendment to or of this agreement of any kind whatsoever shall be made or claimed by either of the parties hereto, nor have any force or effect whatsoever, unless it shall be agreed to in writing by the parties.

11. In the event of Purchaser's default and resulting termination of this agreement by lapse of time, forfeiture or otherwise, all improvements, whether finished or unfinished, which may be put upon the premises by Purchaser shall belong to and be the property of Seller without liability or obligation on Seller's part to account to Purchaser therefor or for any part thereof.

12. In case of the failure of Purchaser to make any of the payments, or any part thereof, or perform any of Purchaser's covenants hereunder, this agreement shall, at the option of the Seller, be forfeited and determined and Purchaser shall forfeit all payments made on this agreement, and such payments shall be retained by Seller in full satisfaction and as liquidated damages by Seller sustained, and in such event Seller shall have the right to reenter and take possession of the premises. In the event this agreement shall be declared null and void by Seller on account of any default, breach or violation by Purchaser in any of the provisions hereof, this agreement shall be null and void and be so conclusively determined by the filing by Seller of a written declaration of forfeiture in the Recorder's or Register's Office of said County, provided however that Seller shall first specify in writing the alleged default which if not cured within thirty days of Purchaser's receipt of such notice may at Seller's option result in a declaration of forfeiture as provided in Chapter 57 (Forcible Entry & Detainer) of the Illinois Revised Statutes. No declaration of forfeiture shall be made unless and until such default remains uncured following the expiration of said thirty day period. It is also the intention of the parties that the Purchaser be entitled to such additional rights as are established in behalf of contract purchasers under said Chapter 57 which are by this reference hereby included in this agreement. The remedy of forfeiture herein given to Seller shall not be exclusive of any other remedy, but Seller shall, in case of default or breach, or for any other reason herein contained, have every other remedy given by this agreement or by law or equity, and shall have the right to maintain and prosecute any and every such remedy, civil or criminal or otherwise, with the exercise of the right of self-help, or any other right herein given.

13. Purchaser may prepay the principal or any part thereof without penalty at any time, and payment on the principal in excess of Seller's equity, if any, shall be promptly paid by Seller to lender of record, and such lender's prepayment penalty if any shall be the responsibility of the Seller.

14. Purchaser assumes full responsibility for securing the necessary funding to make the final payment described in Paragraph 3(b) whether by financing or otherwise, and failure to do so for any reason, and to make such final payment when due, shall constitute a default.

15. Seller represents to Purchaser that all equipment and appliances are and will at closing be in operating condition, including but not limited to mechanical and heating equipment, water heater, plumbing and electrical system, and any miscellaneous mechanical personal property and kitchen equipment remaining with the premises. Purchaser may inspect the premises to determine compliance and unless written notice of any alleged deficiency is given to Seller prior to closing it shall be conclusively concluded that the condition of the premises and the above equipment and all personal property is satisfactory to the Purchaser, in compliance with this agreement, and Seller shall have no further responsibility with reference thereto other than to convey as provided herein, including the items of personal property referred to in Paragraph 1 of this agreement by properly executed Bill of Sale, from which all warranties of quality, fitness and merchantability will be excluded.

16. If Seller or Purchaser fails to make any payments required hereunder when due the other party may pay same. Evidence that payments required to be made have been paid will be provided the other party upon request. Seller may elect to pay such items which Purchaser fails to pay and any amount so paid shall become an addition to the purchase price immediately due and payable to Seller, with interest at the maximum legal rate until paid, and Purchaser shall receive full credit for any such payment made in behalf of Seller.

17. Purchaser shall pay to Seller all costs and expenses, including Attorneys' fees, incurred by Seller in any action or proceeding to which Seller, without Seller's fault, may be made a party by reason of being party to this agreement, and either party will pay to the other all costs and expenses, including Attorneys' fees, incurred in enforcing any of the covenants and provisions of this agreement in any action brought on account of the provisions hereof, and all such costs, expenses, and Attorneys' fees may be included in and form a part of any judgment entered in any proceedings brought on or under this agreement.

If possession is so delivered the escrow fund shall be paid to Seller. If possession is not so delivered, the escrow shall pay to Purchaser from the escrow funds the sum of one-thirtieth (1/30th) of the deposit per day for each day or portion thereof possession is withheld from Purchaser after the agreed date.

26. Seller agrees to promptly make the monthly mortgage payments as required under the mortgage of record, including interest, principal, and reserve, and to pay taxes and insurance when due or to cause such payment by the Lender as the case may be. Seller warrants that the balance due on the mortgage of record, including accrued interest, is and shall at all times during the term of this Agreement be less than the balance due Seller from Purchaser. 27. At Purchaser's option and expense, an account shall be established with a depository agency in Seller's name and arrangements shall be made with the Lender of record for automatic withdrawal payments to be made from such account for the making of regular payments due on the mortgage of record. The Seller shall not otherwise use the account for any other purpose. To the extent that the regular monthly payment due Seller from Purchaser exceeds the regular monthly payment due Lender of record from Seller, Purchaser shall make such payment direct to Seller and the balance shall be deducted by Purchaser in said account on a timely basis.
