Mortgagors shall pay, before any penalty attaches, all general taxes, special assessments, water charges, sewer service charges, and other charges against the premises when due, and shall, upon written request, furnish to Trustee or to holders of the note the original or duplicate receipt therefor. To prevent default hereunder Mortgagors shall pay in full under protest, in the manner provided by statute, any tax or assessment which Mortgagors may desire to contest.

3. Mortgagors shall keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter situated on said premises insured against loss or damage by fire, lightning and windstorms under policies providing for payment by the insurance companies of money sufficient either to pay the cost of replacing or repairing the same or to pay in full the indebtedness secured hereby, all in amounts satisfactory to the holders of the note, under insurance policies payable, in case of loss or damage, to Trustee for the benefit of the holders of the note, such rights to be evidenced by the standard mortgage clause to be attached to such policy, and shall deliver all policies, including additional and renewal policies, to holders of the note, and in case of insurance about to expire, shall deliver renewal policies not less than ten days prior to the respective dates of expiration.

4. In case of default thereon, Trustee or the holders of the note may, at need not, make any payment or perform any act hereinbefore required of Mortgagors in any way and manner convenient, and may, but need not, make full or partial payments of principal or interest or prior encumbrances, if any, and/or taxes, discharge, compromise or settle any tax lien or other prior lien or title or claim hereof; if, or redeem from any tax sale or foreclosure affecting said premises or contract any tax or assessment. All moneys paid for any of the purposes herein authorized and all expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any other moneys advanced by Trustee or the holders of the note to protect the mortgaged premises and the lien hereof, plus reasonable compensation to Trustee for each matter concerning which action herein authorized may be taken, shall be so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and shall become immediately due and payable without notice and with interest thereon at the rate of nine per cent per annum. 5. The Trustee or the holders of the note hereby secured making any payment authorized relating to taxes or assessment may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate procured from the appropriate public office without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax, assessment, rate, forfeiture, tax lien or title or claim thereof.

6. Mortgagors shall pay such items of indebtedness herein mentioned, both principal and interest, when due according to the terms hereof. At the election of the holders of the principal note, and without notice to Mortgagors, all unpaid indebtedness secured by this Trust Deed shall, notwithstanding anything in the principal note or in this Trust Deed to the contrary, become due and payable when default shall occur in payment of principal or interest, or in case default shall occur in, continue for three days in the performance of any other agreement of the Mortgagors herein contained.

In any suit to foreclose the lien hereof, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness to the decree for sale all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Trustee or holders of the note for attorney's fees, trustee's fees, appraiser's fees, costs for documentary and expert evidence, stenographers' charges, publication costs and costs (which may be estimated as to items to be expended after entry of the decree) of procuring all such abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, guarantee policies, title certificates and similar data and assurances with respect to title as Trustee or holders of the note may deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to convey to holders at any sale which may be had pursuant to such decree the true condition of the title to or the value of the premises. In addition, all expenditures and expenses of the nature in this paragraph mentioned shall be for so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and shall be due and payable, with interest thereon at the rate of nine per cent per annum, when due or levied by Trustee or holders of the note in connection with (1) any action, suit or proceeding, including but not limited to probate and bankruptcy proceedings, to which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant, by reason of this Trust Deed or any indebtedness hereby secured; or (2) preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after accrual of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; or (3) preparation for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced.

Such appointment may be made either before or after suit, within 1 month, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of appointment for such receiver and without regard to the fair value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a home or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, wages and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale due to a deficiency, during the full statutory period for redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further time when Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, wages and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such case for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) the indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this Trust Deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

12. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence, or condition of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this Trust Deed or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of his own gross negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and he may require indemnities satisfactory to him before exercising any power herein given.

13. Trustee shall release this Trust Deed and the lien thereon by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this Trust Deed has been fully paid; and Trustee may execute and deliver hereto to and at the request of any person who shall either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the principal note, representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representative Trustee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a release is requested of a successor trustee, such successor trustee may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which bears a certificate of identification purporting to be executed by a prior trustee hereunder or which connotes its substance with the description herein contained of the principal note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as the trustees thereof; and where the release is requested of the original trustee and he has never executed a certificate on any instrument identifying same as the principal note described herein, he may accept as the genuine principal note herein described any note which may be presented and which connotes in substance with the description herein contained of the principal note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof.

14. Trustee may resign by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder or Register of Titles in which this instrument shall have been recorded or filed. In case of the death, resignation, inability or removal of any Trustee, she shall be first Successor in Trust and in the event of her or his removal, resignation, disability or refusal to act, the then Recorder of Deeds of the county in which the premises are situated shall be second Successor in Trust.
