TOTAL BALANCE DUE $45,083.92

(K) The name of the present owners of said real estate are: Capital Bank & Trust Company as T/U/T #1433

(L) The names of other persons who are joined as defendants and whose interest in or lien on the mortgaged real estate is sought to be terminated are: Jerry Carter, Jr. as reputed Beneficiary of said Trust #1433., which lien(s) is(are) subservient and subordinate to the lien of Plaintiff.

(M) The names of defendants personally liable for the deficiency, if any are: Blaise J. Massimo

(N) The capacity in which plaintiff brings this foreclosure is as the owner and legal holder of said note, mortgage and indebtedness.

III. FEES AND COSTS.

1. Plaintiff has been compelled to employ and retain attorneys to prepare and file the complaint and to represent and advise the plaintiff in the foreclosure of the mortgage, and the plaintiff has and will thereby become liable for the usual, reasonable and customary fees of the attorneys in that behalf.

2. The plaintiff has been compelled to advanced or will be compelled to advance, various sums of money in payment of costs, fees, expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with the foreclosure, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, filing fees, service of process fees, copying charges, stenographer's fees, witness fees, costs of publication, costs of procuring and preparing documentary evidence and costs of procuring abstracts of title, Torrens certificates, foreclosure minutes and a title insurance policy.

is entitled to recover all such advances, costs, attorneys fees, expenses and disbursements, together with interest on all advances at the rate of interest provided in the mortgage, from the date on which such advances are made.

5. In order to protect and preserve the mortgage real estate, it has or may also become necessary for the plaintiff to pay fire and other hazard insurance premiums on the real estate or to make such repairs to the real estate as may reasonably be deemed necessary for the proper preservation thereof.

6. Under the terms of the mortgage, any money so paid or expended has or will become an additional indebtedness secured by the mortgage and will bear interest from the date such monies are advanced at the rate provided in the mortgage.

IV. ULTIMATE FINDINGS.

1. The allegations and deemed allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true substantially as set forth, and the equities in the cause are with Plaintiff, and Plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the complaint including foreclosure of said mortgage upon the real estate described therein in the amount of the total Balance Due, as found in II, paragraph (J) above, together with interest thereon at the statutory rate after the entry of this judgment and additional advances, expenses, and court costs, including publication costs and expenses of sale.

2. Said real estate is free and clear of all liens and encumbrances except unpaid general real estate taxes for the present or past years and thereafter and special assessments, if any, subject to any defendants right of redemption.

3. Plaintiff's mortgage is prior and superior to all other mortgages, claims of interests and liens upon said real estate except for real estate taxes and special assessments, if any.

4. The sum of attorney fees allowed herein as stated above is the fair, reasonable and proper fee to be allowed to plaintiff as attorney's fees in this proceeding in accordance with the terms of the note and mortgage given to plaintiff by said defendants, which should be added to and become a part of the indebtedness due to plaintiff.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

V. ORDER UPON DEMED REQUEST FOR FORECLOSURE.

1. An accounting has been taken under the direction of the court of the amounts due and owing to the plaintiff as declared herein.

2. The defendants are ordered to pay to the plaintiff before expiration of any redemption period (or, if no redemption period, within seven days after the date of this judgment) whatever sums may appear to be due upon the taking of such account, together with attorneys' fees, costs, advances and expenses of the proceedings (to the extent provided in the mortgage or by law).

3. In default of such payment in accordance with this judgment, the mortgaged real estate shall be sold as directed by the court, to satisfy the amount due to the plaintiff as set forth in this judgment, together with the interest advances, and expenses incurred after judgment at the statutory judgment rate from the date of the judgment.

4. In the event the plaintiff is a purchaser of the mortgaged real estate at such sale, the plaintiff may offset against the purchase price of such real estate the amount due under the judgment for foreclosure and order confirming the sale.

5. In the event of such sale and the failure of the person entitled thereto to redeem prior to such sale, pursuant to statutory provisions, the defendants made parties to the foreclosure in accordance with statutory provisions, and all persons claiming by, through or under them, and each and any and all of them, shall be forever barred and foreclosed of any right, title, interest, claim, lien or right to redeem in and to the mortgaged real estate.

6. If no redemption is made prior to such sale, a deed shall be issued to the purchaser according to law and such purchaser shall be let into possession of the mortgaged real estates in accordance with statutory provisions.

VI. ORDER UPON SPECIAL MATTERS.

1. The sale shall be by public auction.

2. The sale shall be by open verbal bid.

3. The sale shall be conducted by any judge of this court, the Sheriff of COOK County, or Special Commissioner as this Court shall designate.

4. Exceptions to which title shall be subject at the sale shall include general real estate taxes for past years, (if any) the current year, and for the preceding year which have not become due and payable as of the date of this judgment and any special assessments upon the real estate and easements and restrictions of record.

5. In the event any party to this foreclosure is a successful bidder at the sale, such party may offset against the purchase price to be paid for such real estate the amounts due such party under this judgment of foreclosure or the order confirming the sale.

VII. ORDER FOR JUDICIAL SALE.

1. The real estate is ordered sold according to law.

2. Upon expiration of the redemption period, the real estate shall be sold at a sale as provided by law.

3. NOTICE OF SALE The mortgagee, or such other party designated by the court, in a foreclosure under this Article shall give public notice of the sale.

a. The notice of sale shall be published at least three consecutive calendar weeks (Sunday through Saturday) once in each week. The first such notice is to be published no more than 35 days prior to the sale, the last such notice to be published not less than 7 days prior to the sale, pursuant to law.

b. The party who gives notice of public sale shall again give notice of any adjourned sale, provided, however, that if the adjourned sale is to occur less than 30 days after the last scheduled sale, notice of any adjourned sale need be given only once, not less than 5 days prior to the day of the adjourned sale.

c. Notice of the sale may be given prior to the expiration of the redemption period.

d. No other notice by publication or posting shall be necessary.

e. Certificate of Sale. Upon the sale of mortgaged real estate, the person conducting the sale shall give a certificate of sale to the purchaser and cause such certificate of sale to be recorded. The certificate shall be freely assignable by endorsement thereon.

VIII. TRANSFEE OF TITLE

1. Upon or after confirmation of the sale, the person who conducted the sale or the court shall execute a deed to the holder of the certificate of sale sufficient to convey title, which deed shall identify the court and the caption of the case in which judgment was entered authorizing issuance of the deed. Signature and the recital in the deed of the title or authority of the person signing the deed as grantor, of authority pursuant to this judgment and of the giving of the notice required by statute shall be sufficient proof of the facts recited and of such authority to execute the deed, but such deed shall not be construed to contain any covenant on the part of the person executing it.

2. Delivery of the deed executed on the sale of the real estate, even if the purchaser or holder of the certificate of sale is a party to the foreclosure, shall be sufficient to pass the title thereto. Such conveyance shall be an entire bar of (i) all claims of parties to the foreclosure and (ii) all claims of any nonrecord claimant who is given notice of the foreclosure as provided by statute.

IX. APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS

The proceeds resulting from the sale ordered herein shall be applied in the following order:

1. the reasonable expenses of sale;
2. the reasonable expenses of securing possession before sale, holding, maintaining, and preparing the real estate for sale, including payment of taxes and other governmental charges, premiums on hazard and liability insurance, management fees, and to the extent provided for in the mortgage or the recorded agreement and not prohibited by law, reasonable attorneys' fees, payments made pursuant to Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 110, Section 15-1505 and other legal expenses incurred by the mortgagee;

3. satisfaction of claims in the order of priority adjudicated in this judgment of foreclosure; and in subsequent order of this Court, and;

4. remittance of any surplus to the mortgagor or as otherwise directed by the court.

REDEMPTION

1. Only an owner of redemption may redeem from this foreclosure, and such owner of redemption may redeem only during the redemption period specified herein.

2. This is a foreclosure of a mortgage of residential real estate. The redemption period shall end on the later of (i) the date 7 months from the date the mortgagor or, if more than one, all the mortgagors (A) have been served with summons or by publication or (B) have otherwise submitted to the jurisdiction of this court, or (ii) the date three months from the date of entry of this judgment of foreclosure.

3. The amount required to redeem shall consist of the Total Balance Due as declared above plus interest thereon at the statutory rate hereafter and all additional costs and other expenses allowed by the court including payments for taxes, insurance, preservation or other necessary expenses with interest thereon.

OTHER MATTERS.

1. REPORT OF SALE

The person conducting the sale shall file a report of sale with the clerk of this court specifying the amount of proceeds of sale realized and the disposition thereof.

2. POSSESSION

Mortgagee shall have possession of said real estate until the sale is confirmed unless an order of court to the contrary is entered. Upon confirmation of the sale, the purchaser shall have right to possession of the premises conveyed and any of the parties in this cause who are in possession of said premises, and any person who, since the commencement of this suit, has come into possession shall surrender possession thereof to such purchaser. If said parties in possession refuse to vacate the property this order may be placed with the Sheriff to begin a eviction and the Sheriff is hereby directed to remove all parties in possession and to place into possession such purchaser.
