RE: 1322987

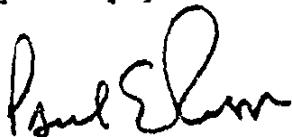

Gentlemen:

I represent the Small Business Administration in the filing of the mortgage on the above certificate.

This transaction is a substitute of collateral in that the original note was secured by a mortgage on other Torrens property. The original intent of the Malkes' and the Small Business Administration was to have the prior note reidentified on the subject property and the new mortgage filed against this parcel and the original mortgage released on the other parcel.

When the original filings were put on, the original note was canceled and your office would not allow it to be used on the filing of the mortgage on the subject property. It therefore became necessary to have a new note and mortgages prepared and executed bearing the original date of the time the collateral was substituted.

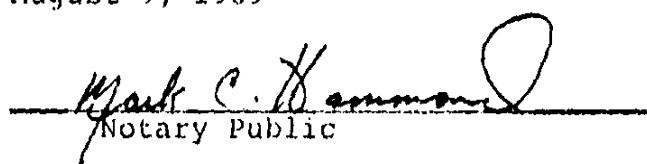

I trust that this letter will clear up any questions that you may have in the matter and will allow the filing of the mortgage and the identification of the note. The undersigned makes this letter and affidavit to induce the Registrar of Title to issue clear title; furthermore affiant holds the Registrar of Titles harmless against any costs or claims which may arise from Very truly yours this matter.
