Mortgagor can, however, by virtue of the discretion it gives at any time to refuse to take or to abandon possession of said premises without affecting the holder's right to repossess such premises at any time, which it may have had without this paragraph. No suit shall be sustainable against Mortgagors based upon acts or omissions relating to the subject matter of this paragraph unless commenced within sixty days after Mortgagor's possession ceases.

6. That upon the commencement of any foreclosure proceeding hereunder, the court in which such bill is filed may at any time, either before or after sale, and without notice to the Mortgagor, or any party claiming under him, and without regard to the sufficiency of the Mortgagor or the then value of said premises, or whether the same shall then be occupied by the owner of the equity of redemption as a habendum, appoint a receiver with power to manage and hold and to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and the statutory period of redemption, and such rents, issues and profits, when collected, may be applied before as well as after the sale, towards the payment of the indebtedness, costs, taxes, insurance or other items necessary for the protection and preservation of the property, including the expenses of such receivership, or on any deficiency decree whether there be a decree therefor in personam or not, and if a receiver shall be appointed he shall remain in possession until the expiration of the full period allowed by statute for redemption, whether it may be redemption or not, and until the balance of dues in case of sale, but if no deed be issued, until the expiration of the statutory period during which it may be issued and no lease of said premises shall be nullified by the appointment or entry in possession of a receiver, but he may elect to terminate any lease prior to the time herein.

The law distinguishes only minor disputes from other legal disputes at the arbitration stage. Disputes involving major legal issues may be referred to a court or arbitrated by a specialized tribunal. In the case of disputes between individuals, the parties may agree to refer them to a court or arbitration panel.
