MARITAL SEPARATION AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into this 20 day of NOVEMBER, 1987, by and between DEBORAH FRANCINE VAN KONINGSVELD, hereinafter referred to as "Wife", and ALBERT VAN KONINGSVELD, hereinafter referred to as "Husband".

WHEREAS, said parties were married on October 14, 1972 at Bellwood, Cook County, Illinois; and,

WHEREAS, unfortunate and irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties; and

WHEREAS, the Husband has filed a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage, in the Circuit Court of Du Page County, Illinois, known as Case Number 87 D 594, and entitled, "IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF ALBERT VAN KONINGSVELD AND DEBORAH FRANCINE VAN KONINGSVELD," and this case is pending and undetermined; and,

WHEREAS, the parties hereby consider it to their best interest to settle between themselves, now and forever, their respective rights of property, homestead rights, rights to support and maintenance and any and all other property rights and otherwise growing out of the marriage relationship existing between them and which either of them now has, or may hereafter have or claim to have, against the other, and all rights of any kind and nature and description which either of them now has or may hereafter have or claim to have, in and to any property of every kind, nature, and description, real, personal, and mixed, now owned or which may hereafter be acquired by either of them; and,

WHEREAS, the Wife is represented by and has had the benefit of counsel of THEODORE J. FORSBERG, Attorney at Law, and the Husband is represented and has had the benefit of counsel of WILLIAM A. BRODERICK, Attorney at Law; and,

WHEREAS, each party has made full disclosure to the other of all properties owned by each of them and of the income derived therefrom and from all other sources and are fully advised as to their rights and relation thereto.

The parties affirmatively state that they have made a full and complete disclosure of their income, assets, and liabilities, one to the other. The parties are aware that they have a right to full disclosure of the other party's assets, income, and other financial data by way of investigation and court-supervised discovery. Each party agrees that he and she have full knowledge of the financial status of the other party, that he and she accept the disclosures proffered by the other party and waive their rights to demand further disclosures.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual and several promises and undertakings herein contained and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties do hereby freely and voluntarily agree as follows:

A G R E E M E N T

Pursuant to the laws of this State, this Agreement is made and entered into by and between DEBORAH FRANCINE VAN KONINGSVELD, (hereinafter "Wife"), and ALBERT VAN KONINGSVELD, (hereinafter "Husband"), on the date indicated below. In consideration of the mutual promises made herein, the parties agree as follows:

A. SEPARATION

The parties shall live separate and apart, and each shall go his or her own way without direction, control, or molestation from the other, as if unmarried, and each shall not annoy or interfere with the other in any manner whatsoever.

B. RIGHT TO PROSECUTE OR DEFEND LEGAL SEPARATION ACTION

The Wife reserves the right to prosecute any action for Dissolution which she has brought or may hereafter bring and to defend any action which has been or may be commenced by the Husband.

The Husband reserves the right to prosecute any action for Dissolution which he has brought or may hereafter bring and defend any action which has been or may be commenced by the Wife.

C. CUSTODY AND VISITATION

1. The parties agree that each party is a fit and proper person to have custody of the minor children and that it is in the best interests of the children that the parents have joint legal custody and that physical custody be with the Wife.

2. Both the Husband and Wife will use their best efforts to foster the respect, love, and affection of the children towards each parent and shall cooperate fully in implementing a relationship with the children that will give the maximum feeling of security that may be possible. The parties shall further cooperate fully in implementing the visitation schedule agreed to by the parties.

3. The Father shall have the right to reasonable and liberal visitation with the minor children, but in no event shall the Husband have overnight visitation with the children at the residence ^{WITH} of an unrelated female.

4. The Wife shall advise the Husband of any serious illness or injury suffered by the children as soon as possible after learning of same. The Wife shall direct all doctors involved in the care and treatment of the children to give the Husband all information regarding any illness or injury if the Husband requests same.

5. The Wife shall advise the Husband of which public elementary and high schools the children will attend. The Wife shall also advise the Husband of the children's progress in school and of any activities or conferences in which the children are involved.

6. The parties have considered seriously the aforesaid custody provisions and determined that they are in the best interests of the children. It is contemplated that no modification thereof shall be sought unless significant changes occur in the environment in which the children are being raised or in the conduct of the custodial parent which would seriously endanger the children's physical, mental, moral, or emotional health.

7. The Wife shall consult with the Husband regarding major decisions affecting the children, (eg. matters involving non-emergency medical procedures, school, religion, etc.), and all such decisions shall be made jointly. The parties understand that the custodial parent shall make routine day to day decisions involving the children. In the event the parties cannot reach agreement on any of the major decisions, the matter may be submitted to a Court of competent jurisdiction for resolution.

D. SUPPORT AND EDUCATION OF MINOR CHILDREN

1. The Husband shall pay the Wife as and for child support the sum of $650.00 per month which sum is in excess of 25 percent of the Husband's net income of $2,573.00 per month. When the first child shall become emancipated, the support shall be reduced. Said payments shall be made to correspond with the Husband's pay days.

2. The Husband's obligation for the support of the children shall continue until the children shall attain full emancipation as defined below:

With respect to each of the children, "full emancipation" shall occur or be deemed to have occurred upon the earliest to happen of any of the following:

- a. The child's reaching majority or completing high school, whichever shall last occur; (In the event the child or one of them, shall attain age 18 prior to graduation from high school, then support shall continue only as long as the child remains a full-time day school student in good standing and is pursuing a program intended to achieve graduation at the earliest practical date.)
- b. The child's marriage;
- c. The child's having a permanent residence away from the permanent residence of the Wife. A residence at boarding school, camp, trade school, college, or professional school is not deemed a residence away from the permanent residence of the Wife;

3906676

UNOFFICIAL COPY

- d. The child's death;
- e. Entry into the armed forces of the United States, but the emancipation event shall be deemed terminated and nullified upon discharge from such armed forces and thereafter, as if such emancipation event by reason of that entry had not occurred;
- f. The child's engaging in full-time employment except that the child's engaging in full-time employment during vacation or summer periods shall not be deemed an emancipation event.

3. The parties shall contribute to the post high school education expense of the children in accordance with their then current ability to do so. By "education expenses" there is meant and included, but not by way of limitation, tuition, books, supplies, registration, and other required fees, board, lodging, utilities related to lodging, such as telephone, electric, etc., round trip transportation expenses between the school and the home (if the children are in attendance at an out-of-town school), those round trips not to exceed four in any calendar year. It is expressly understood by the parties that their obligation to pay for the educational expenses of the children shall, insofar as it pertains to tuition, be limited to the then current tuition charged by the state university of the state in which the children reside.

The parties' obligations are conditioned upon the following:

- a. The children have at that time the desire and aptitude for a trade school or college education.
- b. The trade school or college is limited to four consecutive years after graduation from high school, except the time shall be extended in the case of serious illness or military service;
- c. The children carry the required number of courses or units so that he or she is considered by the school attended to be "full-time" students and the children shall maintain passing grade averages as prescribed by said school;

4. The decisions affecting the education of the children, including the choice of trade school or college, shall be made jointly by the parties, who shall consider the expressed preference of the children. Neither party shall unreasonably withhold his or her consent to the expressed preference of the children. In the event the parties cannot agree upon the school to be attended or in respect to any of the foregoing, a court of competent jurisdiction shall make the determination upon proper notice and petition.

5. In addition to the aforementioned child support, the

0 0 9 0 6 6 7 6

Husband shall pay a clothing allowance for the children not to exceed $300.00 for the two children in any one year, said payments to be made at or near the beginning of the children's school year.

E. MEDICAL, DENTAL, OPTICAL, AND RELATED EXPENSES OF CHILDREN

1. The Husband shall pay for the extraordinary medical, surgical, hospital, optical, psychiatric, psychological, dental, and orthodontial care of the children to the extent not covered by insurance. In the event of serious illness or the need for hospital, surgical, optical, or orthodontial or extraordinary medical or dental care, the Wife shall consult the Husband before incurring expenses in any of those connections. It is understood by both parties that the Wife's obligation to consult the Husband before incurring expenses in any of those connections shall not apply in cases of emergency where the children's life or health might be imperiled by delay.

2. The Wife shall pay for the ordinary medical expenses of the children (the term 'ordinary expense' is understood to mean up to $50.00 per incident).

3. The Husband's obligation with respect to the children shall terminate when the children attain full emancipation as defined in paragraph D 2. of this Agreement.

F. INSURANCE

1. The Husband shall maintain reasonable and current or comparable life insurance on his life in full force and effect, naming the children as beneficiaries, for as long as he has an obligation to pay for the support and/or education of the minor children.

2. Both the Husband and the Wife shall maintain the current or comparable medical insurance or that insurance which is made available by his or her employer, covering the minor children, in effect for as long as either party may have an obligation to pay for the support or education of the minor children. The Husband shall advise the Wife as to the name and address of his insurance carrier, provide her with identification cards and claim forms, and he shall cooperate with the Wife in filing any insurance claims.

G. PERSONAL PROPERTY

1. The parties have made a full, complete, and satisfactory distribution of the furniture, furnishings, appliances, tools, and all other household effects and personal property, and they affirmatively state that they have taken or will take possession of the property to be assigned to each of them.

2. The parties understand that they have an obligation to deliver any personal property in their possession to the party to whom it is assigned herein, immediately as it is requested.

3. The Wife shall retain, as her sole and exclusive property, free and clear of any claim that the Husband may have, the automobile currently in her possession, which is a 1982 Ford Fairmount/Futura.

4. At the time the marital residence is sold, the Husband shall pay to the Wife an amount equal to $6,897.93 (1/2 of the 6/30/87 total of contributions to the Husband's Pension account) plus simple interest calculated at a rate of 6 percent per annum from the date of this Judgment to the date of closing on the sale of the house.

H. MAINTENANCE

1. The Husband shall pay and the Wife shall accept as a lump sum settlement and in lieu of maintenance the sum of ($12,600.00) TWELVE THOUSAND SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS payable in 36 monthly installments of $350.00 each.

2. Except as provided in the preceding paragraph, the Wife hereby waives any rights or claims she may have to receive maintenance (formerly known as alimony) from the Husband.

3. That the Husband hereby waives any rights or claims he may have to receive maintenance (formerly known as alimony) from the Wife.

4. Except as provided in Paragraph G 4., above, the parties waive any and all rights that he or she has or may have in any pension, profit sharing, stock purchase plan, or any other fringe benefit plan that the other may have by reason of any current, past or future employment. (This waiver shall not be considered to apply to medical insurance coverage for the minor children.)

I. REAL ESTATE

1. The parties own the property commonly known as 16531 Craig Drive, Oak Forest, Cook County, Illinois, in Joint Tenancy. This property has served as the marital residence, and the parties agree that said property is marital property and that neither party has any special equity therein.

2. The Wife shall have exclusive possession of the marital residence until the first of the following to occur:

a. The youngest child is emancipated.

- b. Custody of the children is transferred to the Husband.
- c. The Wife remarries or cohabits on a continuing conjugal basis.
- d. The Wife elects to sell the property.

3. During the period of the Wife's exclusive occupancy, the Wife shall be solely responsible, shall promptly pay, and shall indemnify and hold the Husband harmless for any and all expenses incurred by reason of her occupancy including, but not limited to:

- a. Mortgage payments (principal, interest, taxes, and insurance)
- b. Utilities
- c. Routine maintenance and repairs. (Major repairs, defined as repairs or maintenance costing in excess of $500.00 per incident and excluding cosmetic or decorating matters, shall be paid equally by the two parties provided:
 - (1) That the Wife give the Husband written notice of any repairs or maintenance that she believes to be necessary.
 - (2) That the Husband have an opportunity to obtain competitive estimates.
 - (3) That if the Husband believes that said repairs or maintenance are unnecessary, the parties may submit the issue to a

3906676

Court of competent jurisdiction for resolution.

4. When the property is sold, the sale must be accomplished in a commercially reasonable manner. (The Husband shall have the right of first refusal regarding any sale contract entered into by the Wife. If the Husband exercises this right, then he shall be required to purchase the Wife's interest by paying to her the same amount that she would have received had she accepted the aforesaid contract.) At the time the real estate is sold, the Wife shall be reimbursed for any reduction in the principal balance of the mortgage which resulted from payments made by her after ^{EXECUTION} entry ~~entry~~ ^{of THIS AGREEMENT} ~~of Judgment herein~~. After payment of the credits described in paragraphs G 4. and K 1. and in the preceding sentence, and after payment of all expenses and prorations of the sale, the parties shall divide the remaining net proceeds 50 percent to the Wife and 50 percent to the Husband.

K. DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

1. The Husband shall be responsible for, shall promptly pay, and shall indemnify and hold the Wife harmless on all marital debts as listed on Exhibit "A", attached. When the marital residence is sold, the Husband shall be reimbursed from the proceeds of said sale in an amount equal to the sum of all said debts plus simple interest calculated at 6 percent per annum for the period from entry of final Judgment herein to the date of closing on the sale of the house.

2. Each party shall be responsible for and shall promptly pay their legal fees and expenses incurred in this matter, in accordance with their agreements with their respective attorneys.

3. Each party shall be responsible for any and all debts, bills, or obligations incurred by her or him subsequent to the filing of the Petition for Dissolution herein.

L. INCOME TAX RETURNS

1. The Husband shall be allowed to claim the two children as dependents when filing his federal and state income tax returns, provided he is current with his child support payments and provided that he otherwise is qualified to claim said dependents in accordance with the Internal Revenue Code and I.R.S. regulations.

~~2. The parties shall cooperate in filing joint tax returns for the year 1987. If any tax is owed, the Husband shall be responsible for and promptly pay said tax; if the parties are eligible to receive a refund, said refund shall be distributed 75 percent to the Husband and 25 percent to the Wife.~~

3. The parties shall cooperate in filing tax returns for the year in which the final Judgment is entered in this cause and each party shall provide whatever documents or copies thereof are reasonably requested by the other party.

M. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

That each of the parties agree that he/she will, upon demand by the other at any time hereafter, execute any and all instruments and documents as may be reasonably necessary to release their respective interests in any property belonging to the other, the intention being that the settlement provided for in this Agreement shall constitute a complete adjustment of the property rights and all other rights of the parties thereto.

UNOFFICIAL COPY

That except as herein provided, each of the parties hereto does hereby forever waive, release, and quit claim to the other party all rights of dower, homestead, and all other property rights and claims which he or she now has or may hereafter have, as husband, wife, widower, widow, or otherwise, by reason of the marital relations now existing between the parties hereto under any present or future law of any state or of the United States of America, or of any other country, in or to, or against the property of the other party, or his or her estate, whether now owned or hereafter acquired by such other party. Each of the parties hereto further covenants and agrees for himself and herself and his or her heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, for the purpose of enforcing any or either of the rights specified in and relinquished under this paragraph.

That the foregoing Agreement constitutes the total Agreement of the parties.

That this Agreement shall be submitted to the Court for approval, and if approved, shall be made part of the Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage, and shall be of effect and binding only if a Judgment of Dissoluton of Marriage is entered in the said pending case.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals on the date first-above written.
