STATUTORY SHORT FORM POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR PROPERTY LAW

Section 3-4. Explanation of powers granted in the statutory short form power of attorney for property. This Section defines each category of powers listed in the statutory short form power of attorney for property and the effect of granting powers to an agent. When the title of any of the following categories is retained (not struck out) in a statutory property power form, the effect will be to grant the agent all of the principal's rights, powers and discretions with respect to the types of property and transactions covered by the retained category, subject to any limitations on the granted powers that appear on the face of the form. The agent will have authority to exercise each granted power for and in the name of the principal with respect to all of the principal's interests in every type of property or transaction covered by the granted power at the time of exercise, whether the principal's interests are direct or indirect, whole or fractional, legal, equitable or contractual, as a joint tenant or tenant in common or held in any other form; but the agent will not have power under any of the statutory categories (a) through (p) to make gifts of the principal's property, to exercise powers to appoint to others or to change any beneficiary whom the principal has designated to take the principal's interests at death under any will, trust, joint tenancy, beneficiary form or contractual arrangement. The agent will be under no duty to exercise granted powers or to assume control of or responsibility for the principal's property or affairs; but when granted powers are exercised, the agent will be required to use due care to act for the benefit of the principal in accordance with the terms of the statutory property power and will be liable for negligent exercise. The agent may act in person or through others reasonably employed by the agent for that purpose and will have authority to sign and deliver all instruments, negotiate and enter into all agreements and do all other acts reasonably necessary to implement the exercise of the powers granted to the agent.

17. Upon or at any time the filing of a complaint to foreclose this Mortgage, the court in which such complaint is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not, and the Mortgagee may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises, if any, during the pendency of such foreclosure suit, and in case of sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. 18. No action for the enforcement of the lien or of any provision hereof shall be subject to any defense which would not be good and available to the party interposing same in action at law upon the Note hereby secured.

19. The Mortgagee shall have the right to inspect or may cause the inspection of the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

20. If the payment of said indebtedness or any part thereof be extended or varied or if any part of the security be released, all persons now or at any time hereafter liable therefor, or interested in said premises, shall be held to assent to such extension, variation or release, and their liability and the lien and all provisions hereof shall continue in full force, the right of recourse against all such persons being expressly reserved by the Mortgagee, notwithstanding such extension, variation or release.

21. Mortgagee shall release this Mortgage and lien thereof by proper instrument upon payment and discharge of all indebtedness secured hereby and payment of a reasonable fee to Mortgagee for the execution of such release.

22. This Mortgage and all provisions hereof, shall extend to and be binding upon Mortgagors and all persons claiming under or through Mortgagors and the word "Mortgagors" when used herein shall include all such persons and all persons liable for the payment of the indebtedness of any part thereof, whether or not such persons shall have executed the Mortgage Note or this Mortgage. The word "Mortgagee" when used herein shall include the successors and assigns of the Mortgagee named herein and the holder or holders, from time to time, of the note secured hereby.

23. The state and local laws applicable to this Mortgage shall be the laws of the jurisdiction in which the property is located. The foregoing sentence shall not limit the applicability of Federal law to this Mortgage. In the event that any provision or clause of this Mortgage, the Discretionary Rehabilitation Program Owners Participation Agreement or of the Note conflicts with applicable law, such conflict shall not affect other provisions of this Mortgage, the Note or the Rental Rehabilitation Participation Agreement which can be given effect without the conflicting provisions, and to this end the provisions of this Mortgage, the Note and the Discretionary Rehabilitation Owners Participation Agreement are declared to be severable.

24. Upon Mortgagors' breach of any covenant or agreement of Mortgagors in this Mortgage, including the covenants to pay when due any sums secured by this Mortgage, Mortgagee prior to the acceleration shall give notice to Mortgagors specifying: (1) the breach; (2) the action required to cure such breach; (3) a date, not less than ten (10) days notice for the default in payment of principal and interest and thirty (30) days notice for the default in the performance of other obligations from the date the notice is mailed to Mortgagors, by which such breach must be cured; and (4) that failure to cure such breach on or before the date specified in the notice may result in acceleration of the sums secured by this Mortgage, foreclosure by judicial proceeding, and sale of property. The notice shall further inform Mortgagors of the right to reinstate after acceleration and the right to assert in the foreclosure proceeding the nonexistence of a default or any other defense of Mortgagors to acceleration and foreclosure. If the breach is not cured on or before the date specified in the notice, Mortgagee, at Mortgagee's option, may declare all of the sums secured by this Mortgage to be immediately due and payable without further demand and may foreclose this Mortgage by judicial proceeding. Mortgagee shall be entitled to collect in such proceeding all expenses of foreclosure, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of documentary evidence, abstracts and title reports.

25. Notwithstanding Mortgagee's acceleration of the sums secured by this Mortgage due to Mortgagors' breach, Mortgagors shall have the right to have any proceedings begun by Mortgagors to enforce this Mortgage discontinued at any time prior to entry of a judgment enforcing this Mortgage if: (a) Mortgagors pay Mortgagee all sums which would be then due under this Mortgage and Note had no acceleration occurred; (b) Mortgagors cure all breaches of any other covenants or agreements of Mortgagors contained in this Mortgage; (c) Mortgagors pay all reasonable expenses incurred by Mortgagee in enforcing the covenants and agreements of Mortgagors contained in this Mortgage, and in enforcing Mortgagee's remedies as provided in paragraph 15 hereof, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees; and (d) Mortgagors take such action as Mortgagors may reasonably require to assure that the lien of this Mortgage, Mortgagee's interest in the property and Mortgagors' obligation to pay the sums secured by this Mortgage shall continue unimpaired. Upon such payment cure by Mortgagors, this Mortgage and the obligations secured hereby shall remain in full force and effect as if no acceleration had occurred.
