IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS COUNTY DEPARTMENT, DOMESTIC RELATIONS DIVISION

IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF

SHIRLEY J. NELSON,
Plaintiff

and

ROBERT NELSON, Defendant

84 D 973-

~~JUDGMENT FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE~~

THIS CAUSE coming on to be heard on the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage by the Plaintiff, the appearance of Defendant filed thereto, and the stipulation of the parties that the cause might be heard as in cases of default; Plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, GETTY AND GEVERS, and the Court having examined the Property Settlement Agreement heretofore entered into by and between the parties, and the Court having heard the testimony in open Court of the Plaintiff in support of the allegations contained in her Petition for Dissolution of Marriage; and the Court having considered all the evidence and now being fully advised on the premises, FINDS THAT:

1. This Court has jurisdiction of the parties hereto and of the subject matter hereof;
 2. The Plaintiff was domiciled in the State of Illinois at the time the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage was commenced and has maintained a domicile in the State of Illinois for ninety days next preceding the making of the findings:

3. The parties were married on September 28, 1968, and said marriage was registered in Cook County, Illinois.

4. No children were born to the parties as a result of the marriage; two children were adopted by the parties and the Plaintiff is not now pregnant.

5. Without cause or provocation by the Plaintiff, Defendant has been guilty of extreme and repeated mental cruelty toward the Plaintiff.

6. The Plaintiff has proved the material allegations of her Petition for Dissolution of Marriage by substantial, competent and relevant evidence and that a Judgment for Dissolution of Marriage should be entered herein.

7. The parties hereto have entered into a Property Settlement Agreement dated May 16, 1984, concerning the questions of the respective rights of each party in and to the property, income or estate which either of them now own or may hereafter acquire, including a division of all marital and non-marital property, and other matters, which Agreement has been presented to this Court for its consideration. Said Agreement was entered into freely and voluntarily between the parties hereto; it is not unconscionable and ought to receive the approval of this Court. It is in words and figures as follows:

AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into by and between ROBERT NELSON, hereinafter referred to as "husband"; and SHIRLEY NELSON, hereinafter referred to as "wife"; both being residents of the County of Cook and State of Illinois.

WHEREAS, the said parties are now husband and wife, having been married on September 28, 1968, at Cook County; and

WHEREAS, irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties; and

WHEREAS, wife has filed a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, against husband, known as Case No. , and entitled "IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF SHIRLEY NELSON, Plaintiff, and ROBERT NELSON, Defendant, and this case is pending and undetermined; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereby consider it in their best interest to settle between themselves now and forever their respective rights of property, homestead, support, and any and all other rights of property and/or otherwise growing out of the marriage relationship existing between them and which either of them now has, or may hereafter have or claim to have against the other, and all rights of any kind, nature and description, real, personal or mixed, now owned or which may hereafter be acquired by either of them; and

WHEREAS, each party warrants and states that they have made a full disclosure to each other of all properties owned by them and of the income derived therefrom and is fully advised as to his or her rights in relation thereto; and

WHEREAS, the wife has employed and had the benefit of the counsel of GETTY AND GEVERS, as her attorneys. That the husband has not employed an attorney and he has not had the benefit of counsel and the husband acknowledges that he has the absolute right to retain an attorney but he has voluntarily chosen not to hire an attorney. The husband acknowledges that GETTY AND GEVERS is serving as the wife's attorney only and the husband has not received any recommendations or advice from GETTY AND GEVERS: and

WHEREAS, this Agreement is not made to induce or instigate a dissolution action, and is not an agreement for dissolution, but is made solely for the purpose of settlement of certain property rights between the parties hereto.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and other good and valuable consideration hereto expressed, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. That husband and wife agree that wife is a fit and proper person to have the custody of their children and have decided that the wife shall have the physical care, custody, control and education of the minor children of the parties, namely, TRACEY, born April 3, 1976, and MARK, born January 25, 1980.
2. That husband shall have liberal rights of visitation with the children upon adequate notice to wife. That said visitation shall be at least every other weekend and two weeks of vacation each year. He shall also provide care for the children on weekends and/or evenings when the wife works whenever possible.
3. That husband shall pay to wife as and for unallocated support the sum of $2,250.00 per month commencing on the entry of Judgment for Dissolution of Marriage herein. Said payments to be made in installments on the 2nd and 16th days of each month. Husband shall continue to pay that amount until August 1, 1989, or at such time as the death or remarriage of the wife. Beginning August 1, 1989, or upon the remarriage of the wife, husband shall then pay a minimum of ~~$750.00~~ ^{$500.00 per month for} child support. ~~beginning 8-1-89, husband shall pay a minimum of $750.00 per month for unallocated support until 2-1-98~~ ^{beginning 8-1-89, husband shall pay a minimum of $750.00 per month for unallocated support until 2-1-98} salary will bring corresponding increases in child support. The exact amount of child support to be determined in July, 1989, and based on husband's income, wife's income and the children's needs at that time. In addition, husband shall maintain and pay for hospitalization and medical insurance on said children. Wife shall be responsible for all other expenses of the children.

sible for ordinary medical and dental care of the children not covered by insurance and she shall be given any insurance payments for medical care for medical care for which she had already paid. Husband shall also be responsible for extraordinary medical and dental care of the children. The term "extraordinary" as used in this paragraph shall include, but not by way of limitation, all teeth straightening, major dental work, operations and services rendered as a result of serious accidents or as a result of serious illnesses requiring hospitalization or extended medical care. but shall not include routine checkups, minor ailments, drug supplies (except if required in the treatment of serious illness), dental prophylaxis and the like.

In the event of serious illness of the children or the need for hospital, surgical, optical or orthodontic or extraordinary medical or dental, wife shall consult husband before incurring expenses in any of said connections. It is understood by both parties that wife's obligation to consult with husband will not apply in cases of grave emergency where the life of the said children might be imperiled by delay. If the parties cannot agree as to whether the expense is extraordinary, a court of competent jurisdiction shall do so upon proper notice and petition, even after said expense is incurred.

Husband's obligation to pay child support and provide other benefits described above and hereinafter ~~for the aforesaid children~~ shall terminate upon the occurrence of any of the following:

- a. The death of husband;
- b. The death of wife;
- c. The death of child;
- d. The emancipation of the child; or
- e. The child graduating from high school or reaching 18 years of age, whichever comes last.

case of serious illness or military service.

The husband's obligation to provide college education for the children is predicated upon the demonstration of a propensity for advanced education and also that the expenses involved in connection therewith are within financial capability, and shall be limited to four consecutive years after graduation from high school, except the time shall be extended in the event the child has not graduated from high school, and the time shall be extended to four consecutive years determination upon proper notice and petition.

In the event that the parties cannot agree upon the school to be attended or in respect to any of the foregoing, a court of competent jurisdiction shall make the determination upon proper notice and petition.
