That the Mortgagee may employ counsel for advice of other legal persons at the Mortgagee's discretion in connection with any dispute as to the debt hereby secured or the lien of indebtedness hereby secured or which may affect said debt or lien and any reasonable attorney's fees so incurred shall be added to and be a part of the debt hereby secured. Any costs and expenses reasonably incurred in the foreclosure of this mortgage and sale of the property secured the same and in connection with any other dispute affecting said debt or lien, including reasonably estimated amounts to conclude the transaction, shall be added to and be a part of the debt hereby secured. All such amounts shall be payable by the Mortgagee to the Mortgagee on demand, and if not paid shall be included in any decree of judgment as a part of said mortgage debt and shall include interest at the highest contract rate, or if no such contract rate then at the legal rate. In the event of a foreclosure sale of said premises there shall first be paid out of the proceeds thereof all of the aforesaid amounts, then the entire indebtedness whether due and payable by the terms hereof or not and the interest due thereon up to the time of such sale and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the Mortgagee, and the purchaser shall not be obliged to see to the application of the purchase money.

9. All easements, rents, issues and profits of said premises are pledged, assigned and transferred to the Mortgagee, whether now due or hereafter to be come due, under or by virtue of any lease or agreement for the use or occupancy of said property or any part thereof, whether legal or equitable, and the Mortgagee shall not be deemed merged in any foreclosure decree, and shall establish an absolute transfer and assignment to the Mortgagee of all such leases and agreements and all the assets hereunder, together with the right in case of default, either before or after foreclosure sale, to enter upon and take possession of the premises, manage, maintain and operate said premises, or any part thereof, make leases for terms deemed advantageous to it, terminate or modify existing or future leases, collect said rents, issues and profits, regardless of when earned, and use such measures whether legal or equitable as it may deem proper to enforce collection thereof, employ tenants, agents or other employees, after or before any foreclosure sale, for the aforesaid purposes, first on the interest necessary, purchase fire and extended coverage and other forms of insurance as may be deemed advisable, and in general exercise all powers ordinarily incident to absolute ownership, advance or borrow money necessary for any purpose herein stated to secure which a lien is hereby created on the mortgaged premises and on the income therefrom which lien is prior to the lien of any other indebtedness hereby secured, and out of the income retain reasonable compensation for itself, pay income premiums, taxes and assessments, and all expenses of every kind, including attorney's fees, incurred in the exercise of the powers herein given, and from time to time apply any balance of income not in its sole discretion, provided for the aforesaid purposes, first on the interest and then on the principal of the indebtedness hereby secured, before or after any decree of foreclosure, and on the deficiency in the proceeds of sale, if any, whether there be a deficiency in personam thereof or not. Whenever all of the indebtedness secured hereby is paid and the Mortgagee, in its sole discretion, feels that there is no substantial uncorrected default in performance of the Mortgagee's agreements herein, the Mortgagee, on satisfactory evidence thereof, shall relinquish possession and pay to Mortgagee any surplus income in its hands. The possession of Mortgagee may continue until all indebtedness secured hereby is paid in full or until the delivery of a Deed pursuant to a decree foreclosing the lien hereby, but if no deed be issued, then until the expiration of the statutory period during which it may be issued. Mortgagee shall have all powers, if any, which it might have had without this paragraph, but shall be sustainable against Mortgagee based upon acts or omissions relating to the subject matter of this paragraph unless commenced within sixty days after Mortgagee's possession ceases.

10. That upon the commencement of any foreclosure proceeding hereunder, the court in which such bill is filed may at any time, either before or after sale and without notice to the Mortgagee or any party claiming under him, and without regard to the solvency of the Mortgagee or the then value of said premises, or whether the same shall then be secured by the owner of the equity of redemption as a homestead, appoint a receiver with power to manage and control and to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and the statutory period of redemption, and such rents, issues and profits, when collected, may be applied before as well as after the Master's sale, towards the payment of the indebtedness, costs, taxes, insurance or other items necessary for the protection and preservation of the property, including the expenses of such receivership or on any deficiency decree whether there be a decree therefor in personam or not, and if a receiver shall be appointed he shall remain in possession until the expiration of the full period allowed by statute for redemption, whether there be redemption or not, and until the issuance of deed in case of sale, but if no deed be issued, until the expiration of the statutory period during which it may be issued, and no lease of said premises shall be notified by the appointment or entry in possession of a receiver but he may elect to terminate any lease prior to the sale hereof.

13. The right is hereby reserved by the Mortgagee to make partial release or releases of the mortgaged premises hereunder without notice to, or the consent, approval or agreement of other parties in interest, including guarantors, which partial release or releases shall not impair in any manner the validity of or priority of this mortgage on the mortgaged premises remaining, nor release any guarantor, co-signer, surety or endorser from personal liability for the indebtedness hereby secured.
